TRIAL AND ERROR PODCAST — MASTER TIMELINE
Holly Bobo / Zach Adams Case
Compiled from Trial & Error and Undisclosed Podcasts
==========

Work in progress...

==========
1977
==========

JUNE 1977
– Britt is arrested for the rape of a 16-year-old blonde girl he dragged into the woods.

==========
1978
==========

DECEMBER 5, 1978
– Britt convicted of the 1977 rape, sentenced to 10 years.

==========
1984
==========

AUGUST 21, 1984
– Britt is incarcerated from Dec 5, 1978 until Aug 21, 1984 for raping a 16-year-old blonde girl he dragged into the woods in 1977.

AUGUST 24, 1984
– Britt is paroled in Parsons, TN; begins intermittent trucking.

==========
1987
==========

AUGUST 24, 1987
– Britt is back in custody for parole revocation) until Apr 15, 1991.

==========
1989
==========

1988–1994 (cumulative)
– Additional Tennessee arrests: robbery, DUI (multiple), public intoxication (multiple), arson, sexual battery, burglary, receiving/concealing stolen property, assault and battery, theft, aggravated rape, kidnapping (multiple), phone harassment.

- Additional charges in North Carolina not reflected in Tennessee record.
- Multiple victims who did not pursue charges through law enforcement.

==========
1991
==========

AUGUST 17, 1991
- Britt escapes custody and was returned an hour later.

==========
1992
==========

JANUARY 6, 1992
- Britt free in Parsons, TN; long-haul routes on I-40 / I-24.

==========
1993
==========

DECEMBER 18, 1993
- Incarcerated in jail until Mar 5, 1994.

==========
1994
==========

MARCH 6, 1994
- Free in Parsons, IN until Jul 30, 1996; long-haul routes on 1-40 / 1-24.

==========
1995
==========

1995
- Britt convicted of aggravated rape and kidnapping, sentenced to 8 years.

==========
1996
==========

JULY 30, 1996
- Britt on State hold until August 21, 1996.

AUGUST 21, 1996

- Britt incarcerated until Jan 6, 2003 in Brushy Mountain prison for another kidnap / rape case in 1995.

==========
2000
==========

~2000
- Photographs show Britt with shoulder-length or longer hair kept in a ponytail. [T&E E4]

==========
2003
==========

JANUARY 6, 2003
- Britt free until May 18, 2012 as lifetime SOR; odd-job trucking.
- Decatur County Sheriff's deputy Ricky Inman and Parsons PD Officer Scott Cagle respond to a possible break-in at a residence on West 9th Street, Parsons.
— The home was secretly rented by Janet Martin (later Janet Britt).
- The residence has a room with cameras on stands, a small cot, wired to a computer in the adjacent room.
- Janet declines to file a report and asks that no one be told she is renting it. [T&E E4]

==========
2004
==========

2004
- Janet Martin meets Terry Britt while visiting her ex-husband Ed Martin in prison.
— Ed Martin convicted of raping minors in their foster care.
— Janet had reportedly known about the abuse and alerted him when authorities were closing in.
- Janet and Terry begin a relationship; she eventually becomes his seventh wife. [T&E E4]

==========
2007
==========

2007 / 2008
- John Walker, while off-duty at the Tennessee River near I-40 Bridge, finds a decomposed body floating, partially kept afloat by intestinal gases.
— Walker calls police to report the incident.
— This real incident is later incorporated by Jason Autry into his fabricated trial testimony as the disposal plan for Holly's body. [T&E E2, E3 P1]

==========
2008
==========

2008
- Charges filed against Terry and Janet Britt for kidnapping and sexual assault of a woman named Tequila Jones.
— Janet was in the vehicle during the attack.
— Charges initially dismissed; later picked up and prosecuted by FBI Special Agent Art Viveros.
— Terry Britt pleads out.
- If prosecuted in 2008 as originally charged, Britt would have been in prison when Holly Bobo was abducted in April 2011. [T&E E4]

==========
FEBRUARY 2011
==========

FEBRUARY 2011
- Holly and her cousin Natalie are shopping at Dollar General in Parsons.
— Natalie reported Britt was present and staring at them, creeping her out.
— Britt later denies being there.
— Britt's bank statement shows a purchase of just over $10 at Dollar General in Feb 2011. [T&E E4]

BEFORE APRIL 2011 (undated — weeks to months prior)
- Terry and Janet Britt attend a house party hosted by a mutual acquaintance of Natalie Bobo.
— Britt invades Natalie's personal space and strokes her hair.
— Britt asks the age of another woman's 13-year-old daughter.
— The Britts are thrown out.
— Natalie refers to Britt as "Chester the Molester."
— Natalie reports being followed by Britt on other occasions. [T&E E4]

==========
MARCH 2011
==========

MARCH 2011 (Approx one month before Holly's abduction)
- Terry and Janet Britt purchase untraceable prepaid "track phones" (Walmart prepaid). [T&E E4; Undisclosed S9 E3]

2–3 WEEKS BEFORE APRIL 13, 2011
- At least 8 women reported being stalked by Terry Britt.

– Most had blonde hair and blue eyes. [Undisclosed S9 E3]
– Among the victims: Holly's second or third cousin, who looked very similar to Holly.
– Officers had pulled her over thinking she was Holly.
– Britt had been stalking her separately. [Undisclosed S9 E3]

==========
APRIL 4, 2011
==========

APRIL 4, 2011
– Zach Adams is arrested by park rangers at Natchez Trace State Park on drug and assault charges.
– His white Nissan Frontier is impounded as a result. [Undisclosed S9 E6]
– After retrieving the truck, Zach's grandfather, Dick Adams, stores it at the home of Billy Bell's mother, Betty Bell, so Zach can't drive it.
– Zach had no driver's license at this time.
– Dick keeps the keys and does not tell Zach where the truck is. [Undisclosed S9 E6]

==========
APRIL 6, 2011
==========

APRIL 6, 2011
– Billy Bell confirmed Zach's truck is at Betty's house from Apr 6 onward and was there on Apr 13, 2011, corroborating that Zach's white Nissan was not available to him the day Holly was abducted. [Undisclosed S9 E6]
– Autry testified at trial that Holly's body was wrapped in a quilt in the bed of Zach's white Nissan Frontier.
– This testimony is incompatible with Dick Adams's and Billy Bell's accounts of where the truck was. [Undisclosed S9 E6]
– Rita Austin confirmed that Shayne would not have had any quilts at his trailer; he didn't buy any or receive any from the family home.

==========
APRIL 9, 2011
==========

APRIL 9, 2011
– The world's largest raccoon hunt took place in Decatur County in the weeks before Holly's abduction.
– Holly attended with her friend Candace Wood. [Undisclosed S9 E5]
– At the hunt, Candace noticed a man watching Holly. After the abduction, Candace reported this and worked with TBI on a composite sketch.

– Her description: white male, 5'7"–6' tall, approx 250 lbs, reddish hair, wearing camouflage. [Undisclosed S9 E5]
- Shortly after the sketch was produced, Karen Bobo showed Candace a photo of Shayne Austin.
– Shayne's description: ~5'10", ~180–220 lbs, reddish hair, goatee. [Undisclosed S9 E5]
- Critical problem with the Shayne ID: in Apr 2009, Shayne had suffered a severe motorcycle crash that crushed his orbital socket and caused nerve damage to his eye, leaving him with a permanent drooping eyelid.
– Anyone who looked at him would notice it immediately.
– Candace's description made no mention of this feature whatsoever. [Undisclosed S9 E5]
– Shayne's mother (Rita) attended and later confirmed she did not personally see Shayne at the Coon Hunt.
– Holly Bobo, Jason Autry, and Shayne Austin are all related; some of the Austin family visited Jason Autry in prison regularly.

==========
APRIL 11, 2011
==========

APRIL 11, 2011
– Two days before Holly's abduction, Britt adds 2x 1,000 minutes to the track phones purchased in Mar 2011.

==========
APRIL 12, 2011
==========

APRIL 12, 2011
– Shayne Austin spent the evening drinking and playing cards.
– His parents drove him (as was their regular routine) because, after Shayne totaled his truck, Rita took his keys and Shayne had no other working transportation of his own.
– Drew Scott called his supervisor Richie Pratt and asked whether Richie would be going turkey hunting the next morning.
– Richie Pratt is Holly first cousin and he supervised Drew at the City of Parsons water department.
– Richie was romantically involved with Drew's aunt, placing Drew and Richie in a close personal and professional relationship. [Undisclosed S9 E4-A]

==========
APRIL 13, 2011
==========

APRIL 13, 2011
– Holly and Drew Scott exchange texts through the night of Apr 12th.

– Holly woke up to take out her contacts and tried to call Drew but it rang once and then not at all.

12:20 AM
– Holly texts Drew: "Drew, if you're like talking to someone else, I'm done. I hope you went right to sleep like you said you was."

4:00 AM
– Holly is awake.

4:30 AM
– Holly is studying in her bedroom floor for an 8:00 AM nursing exam at the Parsons campus of the University of Tennessee Martin, approx 15 minutes from the family home. [Undisclosed S9 E1]
– Holly and her classmate Emily Pratt, whose husband is related to Dana Bobo, are both due at UT Martin's Parsons campus at 8:00 AM for their nursing school exam.

5:03 AM
– Holly texts Drew: "No i swear 2 god."
– Her phone registers on the Darden tower home sector.

5:20 AM
– Drew texts Holly: "Me and dad headed hunting."
– He and his father, Boo, are heading to Holly's grandmother's property in Bath Springs, about 20–25 miles southeast of Darden. [Undisclosed S9 E1]

5:30 AM
– Dana wake up for his shift at McKenzie Tree Service in Parsons, where he drives the mowing machine.

5:40 AM
– Bo Brasher, Holly's third cousin, is moving through the pre-dawn woods on their grandmother's Bath Springs property.
– Brasher comes across two men in camouflage still sitting in their truck.
– Brasher recognizes one as Harold "Boo" Scott, who had umpired some of his high school baseball games.
– The other introduces himself as "Boo's" son, Drew.
– Brasher asks if they have permission.
– Drew explains he's dating the landowner's granddaughter and that they have permission to hunt there.
– The two hunting parties part ways.
– Drew's phone pings a cell tower consistent with the Bath Springs area at this time. [Undisclosed S9 E1]
– When Brasher circles back later, Boo and Drew's truck is gone. This is the last confirmed placement of Drew Scott in Bath Springs.
– Per TBI report 98 (Walker), Drew and Boo were "essentially run off" the property by Brasher.

5:54 AM
– Zach Adam's phone is active.
– Zach lives with his girlfriend, Rebecca Earp,next door to his grandfather, John "Dick" Adams.
– Rebecca testified that Zach had talked her into spending the night the night before.
– Rebecca testified that between 6:00 and 7:30 AM, Zach wakes her to say he is heading out to haul scrap.
– Rebecca testified that she recalled hearing his white Nissan pickup pulling a trailer full of scrap around the house before going back to sleep.
– Per scrapyard records, Zach was not at the scrapyard on the day of the abduction.

6:00 AM
– Camden Police Officer Brian Vitt returns home from his night shift at approx 6:00 AM.
– Vitt lives on Yellow Springs Rd.

6:20 AM
– Blake Barnette is awake at home making calls two hours before he will tell law enforcement that he woke up.
Barnette's statement to law enforcement: "Got up around 8 AM, woke Brandon Singleton about 8:15. They left the house around 8:30. Arrived at work about 9:00."
– Barnette was Holly's high school ex who worked at Food Giant with Drew's father and brother.

6:30 AM
– Dana speaks to Holly briefly through her bedroom door and leaves $20 on the kitchen bar for her before leaving for work.
– Karen gets up and starts her day after Dana leaves for work.

6:45 AM
– Jason Autry wakes up at his girlfriend Angela Scott's house.
– When Angela leaves for work, she drops him off at a Quick Mart where his PT Cruiser is parked.
– Autry drives to Camden Bottoms to look at wildlife and kill some time while trying to "establish a connection" to obtain morphine.
– Karen packs a lunch for Holly: a sandwich and a bag of candy bars in a big white lunch bag with black polka dots.

6:50 AM
– Autry texts to Angela, pinging the cell tower near her home in Camden.

6:51 AM

— Autry's phone pings off a different tower (one ping, then silence until 8:19 AM).

7:00 AM
— Karen leaves for work at Scotts Hill Middle School.
— Holly is studying at the kitchen table wearing jeans and a pink t-shirt. [Undisclosed S9 E1]
— Clint is upstairs sleeping in his bed.
— As Karen walks to her car, she hears a loud truck engine somewhere nearby.
— Brian Vitt told a TBI agent he may have been outside mowing his lawn on Yellow Springs Rd from 7:00 to 9:00 AM.
— At trial he stated he was inside from 6:00 to 8:00 AM.
— The two accounts conflict and were not reconciled in the reviewed materials.
— Vitt's daughter knew Holly.

- Walker's theory: the abductor had come up through the woods via an old logging road behind the house, watched, and waited until both parents left. [T&E E1]

7:01 AM
— Karen places a call to Tina Brumley while driving to work at SHMS.

7:04 AM
— Two doors down from the Bobo residence, neighbor James Barnes gets a text from his friend Keith Clark.
— Clark has arrived at the Barnes' residence to work on Barnes' pickup truck.

7:05 AM
— Holly texts Drew: "Let me tell u sumthin, i have studied till i cant possibly study anymore for this test!"
— This is Holly's last outgoing text that appears in both carrier records and the SIM card extraction.

7:15 AM
— Karen's phone call with Tina ends.
— When Dick Adams leaves the house for work, Dylan Adams is still in bed sleeping.
— Dick has worked the day shift with his neighbor Billy Bell for years.

7:17 AM
— Holly and Drew trade seven failed call attempts.
— Drew's home sector is Cell Tower 10513 in Decaturville.
— During all seven attempts, both phones register on the Darden tower (Holly's home sector).

7:18 AM
– Drew → Holly
– Drew texts Holly about Brasher encounter.
– Holly texts Drew: "Who? WTF?"
– Drew texts Holly: "Bo Brasher." [Undisclosed S9 E1]
– Drew calls Holly to elaborate on the Brasher text, no answer.
– At trial, Drew testified he was 20 miles away turkey hunting but the discrepancy re: the time he returned to the area and registered on Holly's home tower was never clarified.

7:19 AM
– Holly → Drew
– Holly calls Drew back, no answer.
– Both phones register on the Darden tower (Holly's home sector).

7:21 AM
– Drew → Holly
– Drew calls Holly back, no answer.
– Both phones register on the Darden tower (Holly's home sector).

7:21 AM
– Holly → Karen
– Holly calls Karen about the Bath Springs permission dispute.
– Holly's phone registers on the Darden tower (Holly's home sector).
– Karen → Donna Goff (Holly's grandmother)
– Karen calls her mother to clarify the permission issue between Brasher, Boo and Drew Scott.

7:22 AM
– Holly → Drew
– Holly calls Drew to let him know Karen is calling Donna to clarify the permission issue, no answer.
– Both phones register on the Darden tower (Holly's home sector).

~7:23 AM
– Karen → Holly
– Karen, still in the school parking lot, calls Holly back after working out the permission issue with Holly's grandmother.
– Holly's phone registers on the Darden tower (Holly's home sector).

7:25 AM
– Holly → Drew
– Holly calls Drew to let him know Karen finished clarifying the permission issue, no answer.
– Both phones register on the Darden tower (Holly's home sector).

7:28 AM
– Drew → Holly
– Drew calls Holly back, no answer.

– Both phones register on the Darden tower (Holly's home sector).

7:29 AM
– Holly → Drew
– Holly calls Drew back, no answer.
– Both phones register on the Darden tower (Holly's home sector).

7:30 AM
– Karen → Holly
– Karen calls Holly again, seven minutes after talking to her.
– Holly's phone registers on the Darden tower (Holly's home sector).
– John Babb and a buddy arrive at his property to go fishing.
– While standing at the levee, approx 150 to 200 yards from Swan-Johnson Rd, he hears a motor revving loudly, then sees a white truck speeding extremely fast, heading south, right off a gravel segment of the road.
– Babb recalled telling his friend: "Man, that white truck was flying."
– Babb thought it was an extended-cab truck, possibly a Ford, but could not be certain at that distance.
– Boo gave a statement to investigators saying him and Drew were "back in Parsons" by 7:30 AM. [Undisclosed S9 E1]
– This is consistent with the cell tower data showing Drew pinging Holly's home sector during the 7:18–7:29 calls, not the Bath Springs area 20–25 miles southeast.
– Boo's statement has never been publicly reconciled with Drew's trial account.
– Drew Scott owned a white truck but TBI Agent Dikus ruled it out as Holly's transport vehicle for two reasons: (1) Holly's phone tracked northbound, while the truck went south; (2) the sighting occurred between 7:30 and 7:50 AM, before Clint's last sighting of Holly walking toward the woods at 7:56 AM.
– The cat-like sounds may correspond with the argument/scream Barnes heard.
– Drew Scott owned a white truck. [Undisclosed S9 E2]

7:31 AM
– Karen → Drew (94 seconds)
– Karen talks to Drew about the 7:18 AM Bo Brasher text and tells him the permission issue is now cleared.
– Dealing with the dispute had made her late and another teacher had to take her second graders to breakfast.
– Karen went inside the school still believing Drew was in Bath Springs.
– Drew's phone registers on the Darden tower (Holly's home sector).

7:33 AM
– Holly → Drew (0 seconds)
– Holly places a final call to Drew, no answer.

– Holly's phone registers on the Darden tower (Holly's home sector).
– Clint's phone rings; it's his friend Chad Marshall.
– The Bobo family dog, Rascal, is barking.
– Clint silences his phone and stays in bed.
– Clint lies in bed for approx 10 minutes before giving up and getting up.
– Barnes is outside loading tools into his truck two doors down and hears arguing from the direction of the Bobo residence.
– Barnes recalls Holly saying: "Stop. I said stop," then "Stop, goddamnit, stop it!"
– The screaming lasts approx one minute before she cuts off mid-scream.
– Barnes' dogs are barking.
– Barnes walks around but sees nothing.
– Barnes thought it sounded like Holly was arguing with someone she knew.
– Barnes tells his girlfriend to get in the truck.
– Later, Barnes will tell an ex-wife that he thought Clint was maybe scaring Holly with a snake.

7:35 AM
– Barnes said at trial the arguing and aborted scream lasted 1–1.5 minutes.
– Barnes then finished loading tools, got his girlfriend and child into the truck, then drove to the Bobo driveway.

7:38 AM
– After sitting in the Bobo driveway for 2–3 minutes, Barnes then drives 4–5 minutes east to Five Forks Corner near Parsons.

7:39 AM
– Drew texts Holly: "It ain't no big deal."

7:40 AM
– Drew → Holly (0 seconds)
– Drew calls Holly, no answer.
– Babb hears a howling sound he initially attributes to cats fighting.
– Babb's friend, who owns cats, tells him it doesn't sound like cats to him.
– Babb later testifies that it is possible the sounds were screaming, though he did not think so at the time.
– Clint moves through the dark house without turning on any lights; he checks the front side lights first (he sees nothing).
– Clint hears voices coming from the carport. He lifts the venetian blinds slightly: through the gap he can see the partial shoulders and arms of two people kneeling, facing each other (one male, one female).
– Clint recognizes Holly's voice and sees a male is in full camouflage, including a face covering, speaking calmly, a few words at a time.

– The male voice sounds "somewhat aggravated"; Holly's voice sounds upset and answers back.
– In his written statement that morning, Clint noted the male voice "sounded the same as Drew's voice sounds when him and Holly are in Holly's room."
– Clint does not turn on lights or not go outside yet. [T&E E1; Undisclosed S9 E1]

7:41 AM
– Holy → Karen (0 seconds)
– Holly calls to Karen, no answer.
– Holly texts Drew: "well your still gonna hunt there"
– These are Holly's last outgoing communications.
– The message at 7:41 AM does not appear in the SIM card extraction from Holly's phone, which contains no data after 5:20 AM. That discrepancy was apparently never noticed or investigated.
– Barnes, his girlfriend, and son pull into the Bobo driveway. Barnes turns the engine off, watching the house and listening.
– Barnes checks the logging road and sees nothing; there are no cars in front of the Bobo residence either. [Ep. 1]
– No cars left the Bobo home from the front of the residence while Barnes was watching.
– After a few minutes of silence, Barnes, his girlfriend, and son leave, dropping his child off with a relative's house on the way work.

7:42 AM
– Drew → Holly (0 seconds)
– Drew calls Holly, no answer.

7:45 AM
– Holly normally leaves for nursing school at this time to arrive by 7:55 AM.

7:47 AM
– James Barnes → Kathy Wise
– Barnes calls his mother, Kathy Wise, from Five Forks Corner (about 4–5 minutes east of the Bobo home), which pings the Parsons tower.
– Barnes' trial testimony said his mother had "gone into town" that morning; in a separate statement he said she was at her house.
– Kathy lives on the same Barnes property, in the house; Barnes lives in the trailer.
– Kathy Wise → Karen at SHMS
– Kathy Wise calls Scotts Hill Middle School to relay the message about the screams.
– Karen is in class so Kathy leaves the message with the school secretary.
– Kathy does not drive over to the Bobo house yet.

– Later that day, tracking dogs followed Holly's scent to Barnes' residence. TBI subsequently made repeated visits to his home, which Barnes described at trial as attempts "to get him to confess." Things grew uncomfortable between Barnes' mother and the Bobo family as a result.

7:50 AM
– Drew testified at trial that he arrived at work before 8:00 AM
– Drew was never interviewed by law enforcement alone; he was always questioned in a "tag team" interview with his father present.
– Drew's camouflage clothing was never collected as physical evidence. [Undisclosed S9 E2]
– Drew's brother, Derrick, worked with their dad Boo at the Food Giant in Parsons.
– Per Derrick, when Boo arrived, he was still wearing his hunting camouflage and immediately told Derrick that someone had taken Holly.
– Clint had not yet reached Karen and Karen had not yet called 911.

7:51 AM
– Anita Sanders Ricketts → Sanders
– Anita Sanders Ricketts (Chad Marshall's aunt) calls Dispatcher Sanders.

7:51 AM
– Clint → Karen
– Clint calls Karen, no answer.

7:52 AM
– Clint → Karen
– Clint calls Karen, no answer.

7:53 AM
– Scott household → Drew (41 seconds)
– Someone from the Scott household calls Drew's cell.
– Per Richie Pratt: Drew is already at work at this point.

7:53 AM
– Clint texts Karen: "Call me ASAP."

7:54 AM
– Drew → Holly (0 seconds)
– Drew calls Holly, no answer.

7:56 AM
– Karen was in the cafeteria with students when the school secretary found her and relayed Kathy's message.
– Karen goes to the library to call Clint. [Undisclosed S9 E1]
– Karen → Clint
– Karen calls Clint after receiving Kathy Wise's message from the secretary.

– Clint tells Karen: Holly's car is still in the carport with Drew.
– Karen tell Clint: "That's not Drew."
– Karen had bad information: It's unclear what exactly Drew told Karen during their 7:31 and 7:56 AM calls, but Karen still believed he was 20 to 25 miles away hunting in Bath Springs.
– Karen tells Clint: Call all the neighbors and to get a gun and shoot him.
– Clint protests that it's Holly and Drew.
– Karen hangs up.
– After the voices go quiet, Clint catches a glimpse through the back window and observes Holly and the man in camo are walking together toward the tree line, possibly holding hands.
– Holly is not being dragged. She appears to be walking with the male voluntarily.
– The family's retriever, Champ, is walking calmly behind them, tail wagging.
– Neither figure looks back.
– In the open air, the male figure's build looks different to Clint.
– Clint estimates the male at roughly 5'10–5'11, around 200 pounds. Broad-shouldered and barrel-chested, like someone who worked out, with noticeably skinnier legs. Heavier and stockier than Drew's lean 19-year-old frame.
– Shoulder-length hair covering the neck. Blue jeans and work boots visible below the camo.
– Clint thinks maybe it's his cousin Richie Pratt, who hunted the property sometimes and was built more like an older, heavier man.
– The object in the male's right hand looks like a turkey call or deer grunt call—a black plastic pipe roughly 7–8 inches long with a flexible end.
– Clint was able to remember and describe what's in the man's hand but not if Holly had her purse, a lunchbox, and nursing notebooks with her.
– Media reports after the abduction claimed Clint saw Holly being dragged into the woods but Clint clarified at trial: "There were some reports that she was being dragged into the woods, but those reports were false." [Undisclosed S9 E1]
– Walker believes Holly was walked from the backyard through the woods, most likely to Swan Johnson Road, where the abductor's vehicle was parked just past the residence. [T&E E1]

7:59 AM
– Fellow teacher and Holly's former basketball coach, Terry Brumley, drives Karen out of the school parking lot and they head toward the Bobo home.
– While in the car, Karen uses Brumley's phone to call 911 and initially reaches the wrong county's dispatcher before getting routed to Decatur County.
– Brumley had also called Dana Bobo at his job site to tell him what happened.

– Karen ultimately speaks to 911 dispatcher Sanders.
– Parsons PD Officer Dale King calls Sanders' cell.
– The 911 operator who took Karen's call was very close to Drew Scott personally.
– Drew moved in with him shortly after Holly's abduction.
– The second 911 operator on duty at the same time was a frequent guest at Drew's family's home. – Neither connection was surfaced during the investigation. [Undisclosed S9 E1]

8:00 AM
– Holly's phone hits on the Darden tower south of the Bobo home but then begins moving north. [T&E E1, E13]
– When Clint steps outside toward the carport, the cold hits harder than expected so he runs back inside to change.
– He puts on green sweatpants, a Drake waterfowl jacket, socks.
– He gets a Colt revolver from his parents' bedroom nightstand and walks out through the open garage.
– Near the passenger side of Holly's car, where the two figures had been kneeling, Clint finds blood: a small pool of low-velocity splatter, four or five drops.
– He reaches for an explanation: maybe Drew brought a turkey up for Holly to see.
– Drew thinks: where is the turkey, then walks toward the trail. No one. No birds. No wind.
– The blood was not there when Dana or Karen left.
– Holly and her classmate Emily Pratt, whose husband is related to Dana Bobo, are both due at UT Martin's Parsons campus for a nursing school exam.
– Autry's phone becomes active for the first time in 90 minutes with a 'volley' of texts to Zach and Shayne when he "came out of the river" near Camden Bottoms / TN River area. [Autry-Recant] – His explanation for the lack of phone activity was poor reception near the river in Camden Bottoms.
– Autry and Shayne's phones are both on the Holladay / Yellow Springs tower near Zach's residence at this time.

8:05 AM
– Fifteen minutes after her phone call to the school, Kathy Wise pulls into the Bobo driveway in person to check on things.
– Kathy tells Clint the screams she heard were 15 to 20 minutes earlier.

8:06 AM
– Sheila Scott → Richie Pratt (1 min 11 sec)
– Sheila Scott (Drew's mom) calls Richie to tell him Clint saw somebody take Holly and ask whether it would be a good idea to tell Drew. [IR 358; Booth-Testimony]
– Richie Pratt is Drew's alibi. Ritchie is only person in the reviewed materials who places Drew at work before 8:00 AM.

– Richie is in a committed relationship with Lisa Douglas, Drew's maternal aunt, who lives next door to the Scotts.
– Per Drew testimony: His boss told him about the abduction so he left work and went to his father's workplace (Food Giant in Parsons), and the two of them went together to the Bobo residence.
– The question the timing raises is direct: How did the Scott household know Holly had been taken at 8:06 AM before Clint called 911, before law enforcement was notified, and before Karen had reached anyone at the house.
– Perhaps Sanders called Drew after transferring Karen Bobo to the correct dispatch?
– Are there cell phone records for Sanders during this time?

8:08 AM
– Clint → 911
– Clint calls 911 from the yard, gun in hand, scanning the tree line.

8:09 AM
– Sheriff's Deputy Tony Weber pulls up while Clint is still on the phone with 911.
– Weber finds Clint and Kathy Wise standing outside.
– He never sees Karen run into the woods.
– Clint tells Weber that someone in camouflage took his sister into the woods.
– He and Clint walk toward that area together.
– Weber checks the logging road and observes a standing pool of water covering the full width of the road that has not been disturbed, ruling out that the abductor used that road for a vehicle. [T&E E1]
– Deputy Jeremy Pratt and Investigator Ricky Inman arrive at some point after Weber.
– The search for Holly Bobo begins.

After 8:09 AM
– After looking for Holly, blood, or any disturbance, he exits onto Swan-Johnson Rd and finds nothing.
– No photos taken, no effort made to avoid leaving footprints.
– He sees blood in the carport and asks Clint to write out a statement while it was fresh.
– Clint wrote this statement the same day Holly disappeared. Four passages define what the investigation had to work with.
– What he saw, partially, from behind the glass: "I lifted the blinds slightly and could see the partial shoulders and arms of two individuals kneeled down facing each other."
– Why he did not call 911 immediately: "His voice sounded the same as Drew's voice sounds when him and Holly are in Holly's room and I am in my room at night."
– The only physical description of the male: "I walked toward the back door and saw two people walking toward the woods together. They both seemed to be holding hands. The male had on full camo and the female had on a pink T-shirt and blue jeans."

– What finally triggered the 911 call: "My neighbor Kathy got out of the truck and stated that her husband heard screams about 15 or 20 minutes ago. I immediately called 911 at that point."
– Weber is the first to put crime scene tape around the carport.
– He does not enter the residence.
– This contradicts Dana Bobo's testimony that he was the first to block off the carport area.
– Clint started writing on the hood of Weber's patrol car, but moved to the back seat due to the chaos of people and law enforcement arriving.
– Karen arrives home While Clint was writing his statement.
– Karen grabs Clint by both arms and shakes him, saying "Why didn't you do something?"
– Weber speaks with Karen and learns Holly had her phone.
– He contacts 911 and requests they reach AT&T to track it.
– To do so, he needs a supervisor's signature on an exigent circumstances form.
– He leaves the scene to get it signed, then faxes it to AT&T.
– AT&T begins emailing Weber pings of Holly's phone.
– He relays them to TBI.
– The closest address to Holly's phone at that time comes back as within the Holladay / Yellow Springs Rd tower near I-40.
– At trial, it was noted that Weber requested one ping every fifteen minutes despite AT&T being capable of providing one every minute.

8:11 AM
– Holly's phone registers on the Darden CR 1253 tower, south of the Bobo home. From there, her phone begins heading northeast.

8:15 AM
– Dozens of law enforcement officers from multiple agencies converge on the Bobo home almost immediately. Hundreds of community members also arrive.
– By the time Dana reached Swan-Johnson road, 50-100 people were already at the house, with more agencies arriving throughout the morning: TBI, FBI, US Marshals, a SWAT team, and a helicopter that circled and landed on the pond levee.
– Dana later described it as chaos: "Nobody knew what to do."
– Seeing people wandering freely around the carport, Dana Bobo uses pink construction tape and two lawn chairs to cordon off the carport where blood was found, after noticing investigators wandering through it without restriction.
– At some point, having had enough of agents hovering over Clint instead of searching, Dana told an FBI agent: "If y'all think one of us done it, 10 of y'all stay here with us and the rest of you go do something." [Undisclosed S9 E1]

8:16 AM

– Holly's phone transitions from the Darden CR 1253 tower to Sector 2 of the Shiloh Rd Tower near Natchez Trace State Park.

8:19 AM
– Autry texts Zach; both phones are on the Holladay / Yellow Springs Rd tower.

8:22 AM
– Dispatcher "Petey" → Sanders
– Dispatcher "Petey" calls Sanders.

8:23 AM
– Dispatcher "Petey" → Sanders
– Dispatcher "Petey" calls Sanders, again one minute later.

8:26 AM
– Holly's phone pings the northwest sector of the Shiloh Road Tower, just off I-40 (consistent with a ~26-minute drive from Holly's home.
– Holly's phone is now north of I-40 in a large wooded area.
– Holly's phone doesn't move from the Shiloh Road Tower location for approx 30 minutes.
– Walker concludes this is where and when Holly was killed.
– This is north of I-40; law enforcement initially searched south of I-40.

8:26 AM
– Holly's phone transitions from Sector 2 of the Shiloh Rd Tower to Sector 1 and then stops moving for the next approx 23 minutes near the location her skeletal remains were discovered by “Lyin Larry” Stone in 2014.
– Dispatcher "Petey" → Sanders
– Dispatcher "Petey" calls Sanders.
– Verizon tower 249 sits directly above the ground Holly’s remains were recovered in 2014.
– A second phone was flipping between sectors at the base of tower 249 during this same window of time that Holly's phone was stationary.
– The phone belonged to Derrick Hall, resident of 110 Summers Rd in Camden, the same address as Amber Bray and her son Chris.
– Derrick’s phone made and received five calls, including a call from Lindsey Bartlett, the neighbor of "Lyin Larry" Stone.
– TBI never pulled Derrick Hall's phone records.

8:30 AM
– Zach texts Jason back.
– Zach also texts Shayne.
– Zach and Shayne remain on the same Holladay / Yellow Springs Rd tower they'd registered on for the last 10-15 minutes.

8:31 AM

– Blake Barnette and Brandon Singleton are texting each other from different towers.
– Barnette's written statement to law enforcement: "Got up around 8 AM, woke Brandon Singleton about 8:15. They left the house around 8:30. Arrived at work about 9:00."

8:39 AM
– Facebook business records show Zach active on his account from his grandmother's computer next door to his residence.
– Zach is fighting with his girlfriend in a comment thread.
– The post is timestamped 13:39 UTC / 8:39 AM CST.
– Dylan has been in bed sleeping at their grandparent's home since Dick left for work around 7:15 AM.
– This is inconsistent with any scenario placing them at the Bobo home at the time of abduction. [T&E E10]

8:40 AM
– Shayne texts a number later confirmed to be his dealer to arrange a morphine pill.
– According to Autry, Shayne calls Zach around 8:40–8:50 but Zach tells Shayne he's busy and will have to call him back "when he got to the location." [Autry-Testimoney]
– Autry testified that he drove toward Decatur County to wait for Zach and Shayne to meet him.

8:46 AM
– Derrick Hall → Dispatcher "Petey"
– Derrick Hall, who is also inside Leslie Bailey Lindsey's calling circle, calls Dispatcher "Petey".

8:53 AM
– Zach → Jason
– Zach and Jason call each other; same tower the whole time.

8:55 AM
– Jason → Zach
– Zach and Jason call each other; same tower the whole time.

8:56 AM
– Holly's phone begins moving east for approx 6 minutes.

9:00 AM
– Dana → Babb
– Dana Bobo calls Babb to tell him Holly had been taken and ask what the minimum age was to file an Amber Alert.
– Babb drives back to check his property and then goes to the Bobo residence; he speaks with sheriffs from both Henderson and Decatur counties, as well as Homeland Security and FBI agents.
– Autry testified that Zach called him around 9:00 AM to say he needed help and to meet him at Shayne's.

– Autry testified that he believed this was about a meth batch gone wrong when he drove to Shayne's to help Zach (approx a 20–30 minute drive).

9:02 AM
– Holly's phone begins moving for the first time since 8:26 AM.
– Holly's phone turns south and travels 23 minutes.
– Her lunch bag and notebook are thrown from driver's side of the vehicle along this route.
– Lindsey Bartlett → Derrick Hall
– Derrick's phone places him at tower 249.
– Drew Scott → Dillan Maxwell
– When Drew called Dillan Maxwell at 9:02 AM, Dillan's phone was on the Cox Rd sector, the same sector Holly's phone was traveling.
– Daniel Eason, Dillan's coworker says they were "between Jeannette Holladay Rd and I-40."
– Dillan's phone never went to Camden that morning; it stayed local on Cox Rd and Darden towers.
– Per Dillan Maxwell's TBI Interview on Sep, 3, 2013: Dillan stated he had known Drew Scott for 5-6 years and continued to be friends.
– Dillan told law enforcement he was 15–25 miles north in Camden working on an air conditioner compressor for Dunavant Heating & Air when Holly went missing.
– When asked where he was at the time Holly was abducted, Dillan didn't have an exact time he met the shop owner at the shop that morning.
– Dillan said he usually left around 6:00 or 7:00 AM to go to the shop and went to work behind Stanfill Dollar Saver in Scotts Hill.
– The IR notes Dillan's evasiveness about his precise whereabouts and timeline the morning Holly disappeared.
– The state convicted Zach on five minutes of cell tower overlap with Holly's phone on Cox Rd but the phones that were actually moving with Holly's on that sector belonged to Drew's best friend Dillan.
– Zach's phone sat parked on his own family's land the entire morning.

9:06 AM
– Holly's phone pings on the Holladay / Yellow Springs Rd tower.
– The central relay phone: Chad Marshall's phone was the busiest handset in the entire case that morning——a communication hub relaying calls between Clint Bobo, Drew Scott, and the dispatchers' calling circle.
– Chad Marshall → Dispatcher Sanders
– Chad calls 911 dispatcher Sanders; tower location unknown.

9:09 AM
– Chad Marshall → Dispatcher Sander
– Chad calls 911 dispatcher Sanders, again; tower location still unknown.

– When investigators asked to examine Chad's phone for forensic analysis, he refused to let them keep it. His stated reason: he needed it for work.
– The busiest handset in the entire case, the one relaying between the victim's brother, the boyfriend, and the dispatcher's family all morning, was never compelled and never forensically examined.
– Chad Marshall is Clint Bobo's close friend; they were described as "best friends" in prior investigation notes.
– In a TBI interview dated Dec 20, 2012 (IR 2858), Special Agent Valerie Troutt interviewed Chad about his relationship with Bethany Jowers, a woman connected to Clint Bobo.
– Chad denied having an affair with Bethany, claiming they were just friends.
– Chad acknowledged that Bethany and Clint "had tried to stir up things" between him and Clint during the time Bethany was separated from her then-husband.
– Chad stated he and Clint were still friends despite the tension.
– The IR notes that Chad admitted he and Casey Jowers had "stopped hanging out" and that Chad believed this was because Bethany had tried to cause friction during her marital separation.

9:10 AM
– Holly's phone is approx 8 minutes south of I-40.
– The prosecution's cell expert places Holly's phone at Sector 2 of the Holladay / Yellow Springs Rd tower and argues Holly's, Zach's, and Jason's phones were all on this same tower during the next 15-minutes.
– The defense's cell expert says they were on different sectors and that Zach's phone never overlapped with Holly's based on predictive server mapping data that was not available at the time of the abduction, but now significantly narrows location ranges.

9:12 AM
– Leslie Bailey Lindsey → Derrick Hall
– Leslie Bailey Lindsey calls Derrick Hall; Derrick's phone places him on tower 249.

9:15 AM
– TBI Special Agent Brent Booth arrives at the Bobo home. By then, 100–200 people are already on the property.
– Terry Dicus is securing the scene; a K-9 unit has been dispatched into the woods.
– In order to trigger an Amber Alert, Karen Bobo tells Booth that Holly is 17, however, Holly was 20.
– Dylan wakes up and drives with Zach and Shayne to Parsons in his grey 2006 Chevy Silverado.
– Around the same time, Dick Adams sees Zach, Dylan, and Shayne driving south on Highway 641 in Dylan's pickup.
– Billy Bell, a lifelong friend and co-worker of Dick Adams was working alongside him that day.

– Bell did not remember seeing Zach, Dylan, or Shayne, although he confirms they did cross through the area Dick described.
– Bell also testified that Zach's white truck was being stored on his mother's property by Dick, without Zach's knowledge.
– TBI forensic scientist Lawrence James examines a large palm print on the front passenger side hood of Holly's black 2006 Ford Mustang; found right next to the pool of her blood and directly where Clint saw her and the man in camo crouching.
– The print has visible ridge detail; James testified it was possibly observed with Holly's blood in it (the court reporter's transcript reads “observed with blood in it”; the audio is debated).
– The palm print is a large, fresh impression; ridge detail indicates it was just left, not from a prior date.
– With an average of 1,500 data points (vs. 150 for a fingerprint), it represents a high-value forensic comparison source.
– All four prosecuted men, Jason Autry, Zach Adams, Dylan Adams, and Shayne Austin, were excluded as the source of the palm print. [Undisclosed S9 E1]
– Drew Scott's palm print was never compared to the palm print on the Mustang; nothing in the record indicates Drew was ever seriously considered as a suspect to the point of obtaining his palm print. [Undisclosed S9 E2]
– Blake Barnett's palm print was also never compared; nothing in the record indicates it was done. [Undisclosed S9 E2]
– Terry Britt was not definitively ruled out from the palm print; TBI did not obtain a sufficiently high-quality comparison exemplar from Britt to make a definitive exclusion.
– Britt was in federal custody at the relevant time, which should have made obtaining a quality exemplar straightforward. No clear exemplar has ever been obtained. [Undisclosed S9 E1]
– TBI also performed a gel lift of a shoe print found in the carport.
– Media reporting misattributed this shoe print to Zach Adams; it was definitively not his.
– The shoe print source was never publicly identified. [Undisclosed S9 E1]
– Zach's grandfather Dick testified at trial that Zach's Crocs were size 13, not size 9 (the size of the shoe print in the carport). The shoe print had no individual characteristics and could not be tied to any specific individual. [Undisclosed S9 E2]

9:20 AM
– Autry testified that when he arrived at Shayne's house, he found a burn barrel with flames 3–4 feet high that smelled like methamphetamine.
– Autry testified that Dylan was standing shirtless in the doorway of Shayne's trailer.
– Autry testified that Shayne was outside telling Zach and Dylan: "Y'all need to hurry up and get the goddamn hell out of here," with a pistol holstered on his right side.

– Autry testified that Zach was standing in front of his white Nissan Frontier.
– Autry testified that there was a gate at the entrance to the property. [Autry–Testimony]
– Rita Austin testified that Shayne had no burn barrel; that her and Shayne's dad picked up his garbage.
– Rita also testified that the gate at Shayne's property was not installed until after Apr 13, 2011 when Shayne got a puppy.

9:23 AM
– Shayne's phone shows no activity before 9:23 AM when he texts a number later confirmed to be his drug supplier.
– His phone places him on his home tower from 9:23–10:55 AM, consistent with being at his trailer.

9:25 AM
– Holly's phone pings Sector 3 of the CR 1257 tower on Gooch Creek Rd.
– This places the phone near the recovery locations of her lunchbox and notebook.
– The final recorded signal her phone will ever produce: LAST READING
– THEN DARK; the phone is either powered down or has its battery removed.
Derrick Hall's phone logs its final call on tower 249.
– His phone has been flipping between sectors at tower 249 for last 23 minutes straight while Holly's phone was stationary at that same location.
– While Holly's phone was being carried south down Cox Rd and ultimately disassembled at the Gooch Creek Rd culvert, Derrick Hall's phone remained at tower 249.
– Derrick's phone call pattern (flipping between sectors, never handing off to another tower) is consistent with someone standing at the base of the tower throughout this window.
– The TBI never examined his phone.

9:30 AM
– Holly's phone goes dark for approx 4 miles (approx 8 minutes of driving) from Terry Britt's trailer on Jeannette Holladay Road.
– If proceeding directly from the phone's last location to Britt's property, this is the direct route. [T&E E1, E13]
– Walker drew a quarter-mile radius circle around the endpoint of Holly's phone route (the Gooch Creek Road area) and the Britt residence fell within that circle. [Undisclosed S9 E3]

9:40 AM
– The SIM card is removed and Holly's phone is disabled between the 9:25 and 9:40 AM pings.
– AT&T's attempted ping does not go through; Holly's phone is already disabled.
– An FBI profiler dispatched from Washington, D.C. in the first weeks of the investigation concluded: (1) likely a single perpetrator acting alone; (2) almost certainly someone with a history of sexual violence; (3) Holly was killed in the first hour within five miles of the house.

– Walker's routing proves accurate to this assessment. [T&E E1; Undisclosed S9 E2]
– When the pings stop coming, Weber is assigned to interview local sex offenders.
– Weber requests a helicopter from the Jackson Police Dept.

9:42 AM
– Seventeen minutes after Holly's phone goes silent, Zach and Jason resurface on the Birdsong tower near the Tennessee River about 20 miles east of where they were all morning.

9:45 AM
– Zach and Jason's exchange texts.

9:46 AM
– Zach and Jason's exchange texts, again.
– Both phones stay on the east sector of the Birdsong tower for the next 50 minutes.
– The Birdsong tower serves the Tennessee River corridor, the area Jason Autry would later testify they drove to with Holly's body.

10:00 AM
– Janet Britt is at work at the Parsons Newsletter, the only local newspaper in town.
– She was not called out of work and was the only worker besides a "low functioning alcoholic".
– This was the biggest news day in state history, and Janet remained at work. [T&E E4; Undisclosed S9 E3]

10:10 AM
– Shayne calls Zach.
– Zach is still on Birdsong east while Shayne remains on his home tower.
– Autry testified that Zach said he needed help "burying a body".
– Autry testified that he agreed under the condition that his PT Cruiser be parked somewhere other than Shayne's.
– Autry testified that he left it at a church and then got into Zach's white Nissan Frontier.
– Autry testified that he asked Zach about shovels but Zach didn't have any.
– Autry testified that the plan was to gut Holly and put her in the "slew" under a bridge so turtles would eat her.
– Autry Autry testified that this idea came from having once seen a body floating under a bridge held up by its intestines.
– On cross-examination, Autry denied suggesting the gutting plan himself.

– Autry testified that they drove toward the I-840 bridge on the Tennessee River and Zach backed the truck up to a pile of riprap (loose limestone off to the side of the bridge) 20–30 feet from the water.
– Autry testified that he grabbed the upper torso of the body with his right hand while Zach lowered the tailgate and grabbed her legs.
– Autry testified that he set her head on the riprap.
– Autry testified that there was a small amount of blood in the truck bed and an orange-sized bloodspot on the multicolored farm-style quilt.
– Autry testified that he never unwrapped the quilt or looked inside.
– Autry testified that he saw what he believed was a foot move and heard a sound of distress.
– Autry testified that he told Zach: "This fucking bitch is still alive."
– Autry testified that she had heard his name, though on cross-examination he could not say when his name had been said, or confirm whether or not she could have heard anything from inside a wrapped quilt in the back of a truck.
– Autry testified that Zach had been digging in a fanny pack and retrieved a pistol from the floorboards of the truck.
– Autry testified that it was the same gun Shayne had holstered on his right side at the trailer earlier that morning.
– Autry testified that he told Zach to wait until he confirmed no one was watching before running to check the area.
– Autry testified that when he came back, he heard the gun fire.
– Autry testified that the sound was a "boom boom boom" and described 3-4 shots he then attributed to an echo.
– Autry testified that a boat was then heard on the river.
– Autry testified that he ran back to the truck to tell Zach they had been seen, and they quickly reloaded the body.
– Autry testified that the bloodspot had grown to the size of a grapefruit.
– Autry testified that they put Holly back in the truck, shut the tailgate, and left.
– Autry testified that on the ride back, Zach said he was involved with a woman named Natalie who worked at strip club for drugs.
– Autry testified that Zach said Natalie had been to his house and "left him with the idea" that the two of them would have a threesome with Holly.
– Autry testified that Zach showed him the pictures of Holly Natalie provided.
– On direct examination, Autry testified that he did not notice the gun on the truck's floorboard when he got in.
– On cross examination, Autry testified that he did notice the gun on the trucks' floorboard when he got in.
– Autry testified that they originally agreed to meet in "the thicket" but at one point referred to it as the Marathon Station.
– When Attorney Thompson asked Autry why he would warn Zach that Holly heard his name, Autry didn't know.

— Autry was later taken from Nashville State Prison to the actual bridge location by lawyers, law enforcement, and prosecutors in order to demonstrate what he claimed happened on Apr 13, 2011.

10:19 AM
— Shayne → Zach
— Shayne calls Zach, again.
— Shayne's phone places him on his home tower from 9:23–10:55 AM, consistent with being at his trailer.

10:20 AM
— Zach → Shayne
— Zach calls Shayne back.
— Shayne's phone places him on his home tower from 9:23–10:55 AM, consistent with being at his trailer.

10:35 AM
– Zach and Jason's phones flip briefly from the east sector of the Birdsong tower to the west sector.
– Jason's device then drops off the data entirely.

10:38 AM
– Zach's phone pings the Holladay / Yellow Springs Rd tower.
– He has left the Birdsong area.

10:39 AM
– Zach and Shayne exchange texts again.
— Shayne's phone places him on his home tower from 9:23–10:55 AM, consistent with being at his trailer.

10:40 AM
– Facebook business records show Zach posts again from his grandmother's computer, apologizing for his language in the earlier comment thread; timestamped 15:40 UTC / 10:40 AM CST.

10:43 AM
– Zach and Shayne exchange texts again.
— Shayne's phone places him on his home tower from 9:23–10:55 AM, consistent with being at his trailer.

10:55 AM
— Shayne's phone places him on his home tower from 9:23–10:55 AM, consistent with being at his trailer.

11:00 AM
— According to Angela Smith Scott's testimony, she and Jason met for lunch regularly.
— She would pick him up at a nearby location and they would eat in the parking lot of the Health Department in Camden.

– She placed their usual lunch time at 11:30 AM, however, Autry testified that they met at 11:00 AM on this particular day.
– Angela gave a statement to law enforcement a few years after the abduction stating that Jason told her Holly was his cousin in the immediate aftermath of the disappearance.
– The closest identified candidate for the Quick Mart Autry referenced is Doherty's Quick Mart on TN-69A in Big Sandy, Benton County, consistent with where Autry said he and Angela lived.
– Shayne's bank records show a purchase at a Shell near the interstate off-ramp close to Zach's home; showing they stopped for $5 of gas on their way to Parsons.

11:04 AM
– A parking-lot camera near the abduction area captures three vehicles passing within minutes
– 11:04 AM: A black SUV.
– 11:05 AM: Two more black SUVs.
– 11:07 AM: An extended-cab pickup truck like Dylan Adams' dark Chevy Silverado with Georgia plates.
– Investigators later note that a TBI special agent was throwing a retirement party that morning and many of the SUVs were likely officers heading to the Bobo home.

11:12 AM
– ATM security footage at a local bank captures the truck belonging to Zach, Dylan, and Shayne.
– The truck passes through the ATM backwards, consistent with the alibi that they were together and intoxicated.
– The state possessed this footage but denied having it for years. [T&E E6, E10]
– Zach's phone pings a tower near the CB&S Bank ATM in downtown Parsons.
– Shayne's bank records show a $120 ATM withdrawal from CB&S Banks in Parsons at this stop.
– Immediately after, Shayne's statement shows a $10.00 purchase at the Mapco gas station next door where they put gas in the truck.
– Surveillance footage from that ATM is later introduced at Zach's trial.
– At Zach's 2025 post-conviction hearing, Dylan testified that he identified the grey 2006 Chevy Silverado on video driving through the ATM lane backwards with three men inside as his truck.

11:55 AM
– Shayne, Zach, and Dylan are confirmed at a BP gas station. [T&E E10]
– This video was not disclosed to Dylan Adams at the time of his Alford plea.
– At a post-conviction hearing, Dylan stated he had "never seen this video to date."

– Both this video and the 11:12 AM ATM footage were withheld by the state from Dylan when he entered his plea.
– This evidence placed Dylan elsewhere near Holly at both time stamps. [Undisclosed S9 E6]
– Dylan placed himself at a different store in Parsons approx 45 min later.
– BP station surveillance footage captured his truck in the parking lot at 11:55 AM.
– Shayne's bank records show a $9.84 purchase at the nearby Shell Service Station and another $6.78 purchase at the nearby Sonic Drive around this time as well.

NOON
– Shayne's phone was on his home tower from 9:23–10:55 AM, with no earlier activity that morning, and registers on his home tower again at approx noon, consistent with going into town with Zach and Dylan for about an hour around 11:00 AM and returning home in time for his DirecTV appointment.
– DirecTV installers (two employees) arrive at Shayne's trailer on Yellow Springs Road to install a satellite.
– TBI IR dated Sept 30, 2014 confirms they specifically recalled this was the day of Holly Bobo's disappearance.
– Shayne was home alone drinking a beer the entire time.
– Installation began around noon and took approx three hours. [T&E E3 P1–P2]
– Shayne Austin is alone at his trailer when satellite installer Randy McGee arrives around noon.
– The install was scheduled in advance, not a same-day call.
– After the nursing exam, Holly's classmates are informed by their teacher that Holly is missing.

12:17 PM
– Brenda Seagraves → Britt
– The first cell phone activity on Britt's prepaid phone is a call from his Brenda (Britt's ex-wife, described as a previously known accomplice on prior offenses).
– She tells him the whole town is looking for a missing woman. [T&E E4] – Britt is a confidential informant in Parsons. Per his trial testimony, he first learned of Holly's abduction from Brenda.

12:20 PM
– Britt → Janet (2 minutes 56 seconds)
– Britt calls Janet and tells her he's coming to pick her up. [Undisclosed S9 E3]
– Terry and Janet Britt's track phones are in contact while bouncing off different cell towers, indicating they were in different locations, directly contradicting Britt's claim they were together all day. [T&E Ep4]

12:25
- Surveillance camera near the road where Holly's phone and belongings were discarded captures a truck consistent with Britt's two-tone extended cab Ford F-150 heading southbound, consistent with the route to Britt's residence. [T&E E4]

12:35 PM
- Zach's phone pings a tower in the Parsons area more than four hours after the abduction.
- This is his last know event in the phone timeline (of record).

1:00 PM
- Britt shows up at the Newsletter to pick Janet up in one of their vans, not the Ford F-150 he will later claim Janet drove all day.
- A co-worker witnesses Janet's call from Britt and him picking her up in the van. [T&E E4]

1:45 PM
- Deputies continue canvasing the area for local sex offenders.
- Decatur County deputies arrive at the Britt home.
- No one is home and the Britt's three vehicles are gone. [T&E E4]

2:15 PM
- Zach → Jason
- Phone records confirm a call between Jason and Zach at approx 2:15 PM.
- This is a real data point that Autry's fabricated trial testimony was constructed to explain. [T&E E3 P2; Autry-Testimony]

2:30 / 3:00 PM
- Autry testified that group bought a morphine pill from Victor Dinsmore at Dottie's that afternoon.
- Autry described the visit as a drug purchase. Dinsmore testified that they only asked for a joint, not pills; Dinsmore testified no morphine was sold there that day.
- Autry testified that Dinsmore made a statement about his wife or putting a car in his shop; Dinsmore denies any such statement was made.
- Dinsmore testified that while working a remodel job at Dotties, three men pull up to Dottie's in a black pickup.
- Dinsmore testified that truck belonged to Dylan Adams.
- Debbie (Dottie's housekeeper) testified that one of the men in the truck was Jason Autry.
- Debbie explained that she knew it was Jason Autry bc she knew his mother.
- Dinsmore testified that third man in Dylan's truck was Shayne Austin.
- Debbie did not hear what they were discussing.

– Dinsmore testified that Zach asked for a joint and the 4 men smoked it together.
– Dinsmore testified that Zach and Shayne started fighting.
– Dinsmore testified that during the altercation, he heard Zach and Shayne say things about "who was going to hit it first."
– Autry testified that Shayne told Zach "You didn't have to kill her" and Zach responded "You're just as damn guilty. You hit it."
– Dinsmore testified that he told them they cannot do that on his job site and they have to leave.
– Dinsmore testified that Jason broke up the fight and the men then left Dottie's.
– Dinsmore testified that in the days and weeks after the abduction, he noticed not seeing Zach or Dylan at all.
– Dinsmore testified that he found their absence unusual given how regularly they were in contact.
– Dinsmore testified that he later told law enforcement that he blocked out much of this period because he believes someone also attempted to abduct his daughter around this time.
– Dinsmore testified that his wife identified the would-be abductor as one of the "Pearcy brothers" who he described as an associate of Zach's.
– Dinsmore had previously told SA Brenth Booth that Zach did not hide his truck at his residence.
– TBI SA Brent Booth admitted at trial that in a recorded conversation, he told Victor Dinsmore specific facts Jason Autry was going to testify to before Autry took the stand, including that Zach's truck had been stored on Dinsmore's property——which wasn't true.
– Dinsmore later acknowledged as factually false, adding that Booth "didn't ask" where it was hidden.
– Dinsmore initially told law enforcement that Zach was not with the group on the day Holly disappeared, but later said he had the days mixed up.
– The group was there approx 10-15 minutes total.
- Holly Bobo's personal effects were later discovered on the road both east and west of Dinsmore's property. [T&E E9; DINSMORE-TRIAL]

3:00 PM
- The Britts roll back into their driveway and unload a bathtub they claim to have bought from Allgood's.
- Deputies pull into Britt's driveway and before they explain why they are there, Britt says: "I didn't rape nobody."
- Britt insists on waiting for Janet to arrive before giving an alibi.
– Janet would later tell investigators the two had been "together all day" but you don't call someone standing next to you.
- Britt told investigators that they only left to go shop for a bathtub at All Goods salvage store.
– The Britt's → Salvage Yard
– Terry and Janet later called the salvage yard to coordinate their alibi story after police first questioned them. [T&E E4]

– Britt later produces a homemade receipt for a bathtub.
– All Goods Salvage, where Britt claimed to have gone that morning to purchase the bathtub, had no matching receipt. [Undisclosed S9 E3]

3:27 PM
– Rebecca testified that Zach stopped by Joe's Video where she worked that afternoon.
– Rebecca testified that confronted him for using Dylan's phone instead of his own that morning, because she found it suspicious enough to think he was lying about scrapping.
– Rebecca testified that Zach's trailer was not on his truck when he arrived.
– Rebecca testified that she had left Zach a note that morning asking him to move some laundry but that when she got home, the bottom of the note was ripped off and the scrapyard's old, dirty business card had been taped where the missing portion was.
– Rebecca testified that she found this suspicious because Zach told her he had not been home all day.
– Rebecca testified that she kept the ripped note and eventually gave it to TBI.
– Rebecca testified that Zach was high on Xanax and he got physical with her when she confronted him, prompting a co-worker to call the police.
– Joe's Video employee → 911
– 911 call records a reported disturbance at Joe's Video involving Zach Adams.
– Audio recording is preserved. [T&E E3 P2]

AFTERNOON
– Helicopters are deployed. Mass search crews mobilize. [T&E E1, E3 P1]
– Searchers comb the log road network around the Bobo home.
– Driving slowly along Gooch Creech Rd, a cattle farmer named Gerald Stephens spots a pink item on the right shoulder, stops, and identifies it as a pair of women's underwear.
– 300–400 feet up the road, near the Yellow Springs community, Stephens picks up a folded wad of paper that turns out to be one of Holly's school papers, with her name and address on it.
– Stephens later testifies that Shayne's trailer was just a bit further down the road.
– TBI SA Brent Booth recorded the underwear's recovery location using the nearest landmark: approx 75 feet from Shayne's driveway on the road itself.
– Lab analysis later confirmed the pair of underwear did not belong to Holly.
– Judy Evans (aunt to both Shayne and Autry) drives to the property she keeps for her horses.
– Feeding her horses is part of her daily routine; today is no different.

– The barn is really just a corn crib: a two-door building in poor shape.
– Judy testified that if anyone had been screaming inside the corn crib, it would've been audible from the street.

EVENING
– Clint voluntarily turns over his cell phone, submits to a body search (no cuts, bruises, or defensive wounds found), and agrees to a polygraph administered by TBI agent Valerie Trout that night.
– TBI RSAC Jack Vanhuser directed lead agent Terry Dicus to use the Reid interrogation technique on Clint, a method widely criticized in false confession research for its confrontational design that can produce false admissions in innocent subjects.
– This direction becomes a pivotal moment in the early investigation. [Undisclosed S9 E1]
– After approx 90 minutes of pre-polygraph questioning to establish a baseline and check consistency with his morning statement, Trout asks the two key questions: "Did you physically cause any injury to your sister?" (No.) "Do you know for certain where your sister is now?" (No.)
– Clint passes the polygraph. [Undisclosed S9 E1]
– Despite the polygraph result, multiple TBI sources persist in believing Clint is lying or complicit for years.
– The pressure becomes severe enough that Clint and his family retain an attorney; the attorney later accompanies Clint during any / all law enforcement questioning.
– At trial, Clint testifies that law enforcement "continually accused me of lying" and "withholding information." [Undisclosed S9 E1]
– Drew and Boo Scott were never asked to sit for a polygraph by TBI.
– This is consistent with law enforcement's practice of never seriously considering Drew as a suspect, in large part because Karen Bobo told them from the beginning: "I just talked to Drew – he's hunting in Bath Springs. There's no way he did it." [Undisclosed S9 E2]

==========
APRIL 14, 2011
==========

2:00 AM
– 18 hours after Clint's 911 call, TBI lab personnel finish processing the carport. They take the blood, the surrounding evidence, and clear the scene.
– Holly has been gone for almost 24 hours.

==========
APRIL 15, 2011
==========

APRIL 15, 2011
– Judy searched the property with Rita Austin.
– Other searchers also looked inside the corn crib.
– Judy testified that the driveway did not have a gate at the time of the abduction.
– Judy testified that the corn crib could not be accessed from the woods in the back.
– Judy testified that she saw no tire tracks behind the barn.

APRIL 15, 2011
– John Graves' family owned approx 1K acres in the Bible Hill area northeast of Holly's home.
– In the days after the abduction, he searched his property on Gooch Creek Rd, at a small creek crossing approx 100–150 yards east of Bible Hill Rd where he spotted Holly's lunch bag, a large white bag with black polka dots and the sandwich Karen had packed for her still inside.
– It was hanging by its strap from a stick protruding from a culvert.
– US Marshal Walker and senior inspector Tom Bach then searched the same creek.
– Within ~20 minutes they found Holly's notebook approx 75 yards downstream, washed into brush by recent rain.
– Holly's school paper was found near the home of Wonita Hickerson (Shayne's grandmother). [Undisclosed S9 E5]
– US Marshal John Walker's cell phone route reconstruction placed a vehicle traveling south toward the Darden area. That route would have passed directly in front of Gerald Stevens's house, the location where the paper was found. [Undisclosed S9 E5]
– Holly's other items were found to the left of the relevant roads, consistent with a driver throwing them from the driver's side window heading south, as Walker's routing predicted. [Undisclosed S9 E2]

APRIL 15, 2011
– Autry testified that Zach called him and asked to meet him and Dylan near a Marathon Station about a mile from Zach's home.
– They drove a quarter mile into a wooded area behind the station. Zach got into Autry's car alone, leaving Dylan in the other vehicle.
– Autry testified that Zach asked what it would take to kill Dylan who he said "kept talking and wouldn't sleep."
– Autry testified that Zach said Dick Adams was expected to pass away soon, and if Jason killed Dylan, Zach would give him a share of the inheritance.
– Autry testified that he told Zach he would think about it.
– Autry testified that he later told Zach that if he killed Dylan, Zach would be next.
– Autry testified that Zach said he had dumped Holly's body near Kelley Ridge.
– Autry testified that shortly after, Autry drove to Shayne's trailer, stopping at Dottie's to buy beer.

– Autry testified that he ran into a roadblock staffed by Jeremy Inman, who searched his vehicle.
– Autry testified that a command post had been set up at the nearby church.
– Autry testified that he took Shayne to Johnny's Bar and Grill to eat, then to another bar, and eventually dropped him back at the trailer before returning to Angela's house.

==========
APRIL 16, 2011
==========

APRIL 16, 2011
– The weekend after Holly's disappearance, Brenda O'Bryant was at her parents' home, which sits directly across from Kelly's Ridge, a gated dirt Rd through the woods where people regularly hunt.
– A silver PT Cruiser pulled into the driveway; the driver asked if he could fish in the ponds on the property.
– Her mother told him there weren't any fish, due to river otters.
– He asked where her father was; she told him her father was out looking for Holly.
– Brenda later said Autry became visibly "stressed" and said he would return later.
– Brenda reported this to law enforcement a few days later and followed up with a written email. – She acknowledged that Kelly Ridge Rd had been gated off for years.

==========
APRIL 18, 2011
==========

APRIL 18, 2011
– Five days after Holly's abduction, Decatur County DA Hansel McAdams sent a fax to the governor of Tennessee requesting he establish a $50K reward, the statutory maximum a governor can authorize in Tennessee. [Undisclosed S9 E6]
– A governor's reward of this size had only been done once before in the state’s history, in a case involving six deaths including two children.
– Most reward requests are $5K–$15K and are submitted six months or more into a case, when it has gone cold and new tips are needed.
– McAdams's $50K request came five days into an active search and was framed not as a reward for Holly's return but as payment for information about whoever took her, amounting to what some observers described as more of a ransom offer than a law enforcement reward. [Undisclosed S9 E6]

– Autry testified that a few days after the Marathon Station meeting, Autry and Dylan went out on a boat on the Tennessee River, ostensibly to go bass fishing.

- Autry testified that his real intent was to kill Dylan.
- Autry testified that after about an hour of fishing, drinking, and smoking marijuana, while Autry was evaluating locations, someone who knew Dick and the boat's owner pulled alongside them and struck up a conversation.
- Autry testified that they fished the rest of the day without incident; Dylan got drunk so Autry got him talking about the events of Apr 13.
- Autry testified that at some point after this (Autry says "months"), he drove to the barn property where his and Shayne's grandmother had a corn crib.
- Autry testified that this was the location the rape occurred.
- Autry testified that he returned to "clean up any possible evidence left behind," but did not enter the barn, just looked from the doorway.
- Autry testified that it appeared normal to him so he left.

==========
APRIL 24, 2011
==========

APRIL 24, 2011
- Emily Pratt was a friend of the Bobos; her husband was related to Holly's father Dana.
- Deputy Jeremy Pratt is Emily's son.
- Emily joined a search group that departed from Dana's workplace at McKenzie Tree Service.
- Walking elbow-to-elbow with other searchers, Emily found Holly's phone laying on top of a culvert in front of Fastco, a business near McKenzie Tree Service.
- Emily had used Holly's phone before and recognized it immediately.
- The phone's SIM card was missing. [Undisclosed S9 E2]
- The phone appeared to have been placed on the culvert, not tossed from a passing vehicle. It was taped / wrapped.
- Emily gave a statement to Agent Viveros the same day and a second statement to Valerie Trout much later.
- The search that found it was triggered by a tip called into the command center the night before Easter; no searches had been planned for Easter Sunday. [Undisclosed S9 E6]
- Items were deleted from Holly's phone. Everything after approx 5:00 AM appeared to be missing from the SIM card, including the 8:42 AM text from Holly to Drew.
- This raised the question of what the person who held the phone was looking for or what the reasoning was behind deleting certain information. [Undisclosed S9 E6]

APRIL 24, 2011
- About a week and a half after the abduction, Tennessee Highway

Patrol Officer Warren Rainey, working as a searcher, not on direct instruction from law enforcement, goes to Zach's residence because "his name kept coming up."
- He arrives visibly armed and in uniform.
- Zach appears to have just woken up. He is visibly nervous and shaking, and repeatedly denies involvement.
- When Rainey follows Zach inside as he goes to put on a shirt, Zach wants him out of the house.
- At trial, defense attorney Jennifer Thompson pressed Rainey on this:
- "And you'd recognize you have absolutely no legal right to be in his house?"
- Rainey responded: "I wasn't going to go all the way through his house, but I was not going to let a man that I did not know step in a house and obtain a firearm and shoot me."
- Rainey acknowledged he had no instruction to speak to Zach and admitted it was plausible Zach was nervous due to having drugs in the home.
- After Rainey and his fellow trooper leave, they watch in their mirrors as Zach runs back to his residence and hides up the road.
- Dylan Adams quickly exits the driveway in a pickup truck, driving so recklessly along back roads that Rainey says there was probable cause to stop him before he reached Parsons.
- Rainey calls the command post requesting backup, stating he is "very suspicious about Zach Adams."

==========
APRIL 25, 2011
==========

- Sheriff Wyatt goes to speak with Zach at his residence.
- Rainey assembles a search team with three K-9 units to search hundreds of acres of county property behind the Adams' residences.
- A "decent," not old, mattress is found leaning against the northwest side of the house.
- A felled tree lays over a roughly 6×8-foot patch of bare dirt with no grass,
- Investigators suspected this to be a grave; Zach retrieves a shovel when asked. They start digging.
- It is not a grave. Hundreds of marijuana plants are found growing on the county property.
- No evidence related to Holly's disappearance is found on the Adams property or in Dylan's truck.

==========
May 3, 2011
==========

MAY 3, 2011
- Ednesha Brasher, a social worker employed at the nursing home where

Clint worked, was riding bikes with her brother playing "I spy."
- While playing "I-Spy," her brother spotted a SIM card the intersection of Miller Street and Camden Road in Parsons, roughly 2 miles south of where Holly's phone was found near McKenzie Tree Service.
- Ednesha picked it up. She pocketed it and they continued riding.
- That night, she put it in her own phone and listened to the voicemails on it. She called a friend who told her to call Karen Bobo.
- She found Karen's number online, called her, and described what she'd found.
Karen asked her to meet Dana and Clint at a gas station, where she handed the SIM card over.

- Approx 10 days after the phone was found, Holly's cousin Natalie called Karen Bobo to ask whether Holly's phone had been found; Natalie said she had been trying to call it and "all of a sudden it went through."
- The timing of Natalie's call, immediately after the SIM card was reinserted and activated by investigators, raised additional questions. [Undisclosed S9 E6]

==========
APRIL–JULY 2011
==========

APRIL–JULY 2011 / INVESTIGATIVE LEADS
- TBI agent Terry Dicus and US Marshal John Walker investigated multiple persons of interest based on the physical description: 5’10"–5'11", ~200 lbs, broad-shouldered, and shoulder-length dark hair; and cell phone records within the Walker route window (7:45–9:40 AM).
Key named individuals:
- Larry Ham: Ham's wife called TBI to report her husband. He had been turkey hunting that morning in camouflage and "kind of fits" the physical description. Dicus sent two US Marshals to review Ham's phone records. They could not 100% rule him out; he had no corroborating alibi.
- Richard Townsend: Dicus declined to state the reason publicly at trial per instruction from his supervisor.
- Jason Nickel: Nickel stalked a woman in Jackson; fit the description of a similar attempted abduction in Dixon, TN six days before Holly's disappearance, in which an unknown man tried to pull a woman of similar appearance into a vehicle. Nickel was ruled out: he had a documented doctor's appointment for kidney stones at 9:30 AM.
- Joseph Regusa (“Tony the Tiger”): Lived in the woods, no vehicle, did not fit physical description, was at work that morning.
- James Barnes: Dicus did not personally suspect Barnes; felt it was “idiotic” to think he was involved given he was the one alerting everyone at 7:47. TBI still thoroughly investigated Barnes's phone records and searched a large area. Barnes's friend Keith Clark had previously stared at Holly and her cousin Natalie Bobo on neighborhood walks. Barnes's client Keith White, who met with Barnes that morning to discuss a deck job, was also checked.

- John Dodd: Dodd had previously attempted a burglary at the Bobo house. Drove a white Ford Ranger. Multiple witnesses reported seeing him driving a four-wheeler recklessly near the Bobo home between 8:30 and noon on Apr13. His alibi (staying with a friend) was contradicted by those sightings. FBI forensic team of 8–10 agents searched his truck thoroughly. A scent dog detected Holly's scent at the cabin of John Dodd's grandfather, Grafton Dodd, located 3–4 miles north of the Bobos, a faint trail consistent with passage 1–2 weeks earlier, timed approx with the abduction. Despite all this, Dodd was not the leading suspect for either Dicus or Walker. Dodd was friends with Drew Scott. The two would ride vehicles together. [Undisclosed S9 E4]
- Blake Barnette: Holly's ex-boyfriend before Drew. Had threatened to kill Holly, burn down the Bobo house, and kill Holly's dog when they broke up in 2009. Ruled out by Dicus: Barnett was at work at Food Giant in Parsons at 9:01 AM, after the 7:45–9:40 window for the crime. [Undisclosed S9 E2]

==========
JULY 2011
==========

JULY 2011
- Dicus staged side-by-side photographs of Terry Britt and Britt's cousin Richie Pratt. The two men looked "strikingly similar." [Undisclosed S9 E3]
- Dicus conducted a vocal lineup with Clint Bobo. Clint stated that both Terry Britt and one other individual (a sergeant named Alan Snelling, who was confirmed at work and physically did not match (5’8”, short hair) had he same tone and pitch as the voice he heard arguing with Holly.
- In an extended vocal lineup, Clint was 80% certain the voice was Terry Britt's. [Undisclosed S9 E3]
- When a "backwards lineup" was conducted (Britt's photo shown to Clint), Clint did NOT pick out Britt. By this point, Britt had cut his shoulder-length hair after news broke that witnesses were describing the suspect's hair. The changed appearance could explain the non-identification. [Undisclosed S9 E3]

==========
JULY 5, 2011
==========

JULY 5, 2011
- TBI lead agent Terry Dicus and two other agents interview Jason Autry at his home approx 90 days after Holly's abduction.
- Autry states: "I know Holly Bobo. I'm kin to her through her father."

- Autry states: "I do not think that either of them, Zach or Shayne, had anything to do with her kidnapping."
- Autry: "I am positive that neither of them were involved, and I know that I wasn't involved."
- Autry says if he knew anything useful he would turn in whoever it was for the reward and "buy a new truck with the money." [T&E E2, E3 P1]

JULY 2011
- TBI Agent Terry Dicus made a final determination on the Adams group after Zach kept surfacing due to a threat he allegedly made to girlfried Rebecca Earp that she would "end up like Holly Bobo."
- Dicus spoke to Autry, then Zach and Dylan at their house on Adams Lane, then called Rebecca Earp directly. After that call, Dicus concluded he was "wasting my time."
- Physical descriptions of the A-Team at the time of Holly's abduction, as documented by Dicus (compared to Clint's description: 5'10"–5'11", ~200 lb, broad-shouldered / barrel-chested, shoulder-length dark hair.
- Zach Adams: 6'2"–6'3", approx 135 lbs, face "sunken in like the Joker," much shorter hair. Did not match.
- Jason Autry: Over 6'6", very large frame; taller than TBI SA Brent Booth who is 6'3"–6'4". Did not match.
- Shayne Austin: ~5'10", ~180–220 lbs (height / weight roughly within range), but had short reddish hair. not long dark hair. Did not match. By 2011, Shayne also had a permanent drooping eyelid from nerve damage caused by a 2009 motorcycle crash that crushed his orbital socket. Anyone who looked at him directly would notice it. Clint Bobo's description of the abductor included no such feature. [Undisclosed S9 E5]
- Dylan Adams: ~6'1", ~165 lbs, short dark hair. Did not match.
- Cell phone records for all four also largely ruled them out of committing any crime against Holly during the 7:45–9:40 window; an initial search of their properties uncovered nothing. [Undisclosed S9 E2]

==========
SUMMER 2011
==========

SUMMER 2011
- Autry testified that a few months after the abduction, Shayne Austin and Jason Autry brought Victor Dinsmore a pistol in exchange for pills.
- Autry testified that he was present for the transaction and identified the gun at trial, stating it was the same pistol Shayne had holstered on his right side at the trailer on Apr 13.
- Autry testified that Dinsmore bought it for his wife's protection, but later told her to get rid of it “because he thought it had killed somebody.”

- Autry testified that Dinsmore and his wife eventually gave TBI information about the gun; investigators flew them to Decatur County and searched a creek off Yellow Springs Rd for it
- Autry testified that Dinsmore described the gun as a .38 or .357, American-made.
In an earlier statement he said it was a .22 caliber rifle. The gun was not recovered.

==========
JULY 21, 2011
==========

JULY 21, 2011
- Dinsmore has by this point moved from Decatur County to the Indianapolis area with his wife Sandy.
- He gives a statement to Officer Ricky Inman.
- He expresses frustration that Zach Adams was using him as an alibi.
- He specifically says he was not with Zach, Shayne, or Jason on the day Holly disappeared.
- He tells Inman the fight at Dottie's happened "a few days after Holly disappeared" but later attributed to him having his dates mixed up because his wife was in the hospital the night after Apr 13.
- He says at this time that his wife was in the hospital the day Holly disappeared, this also later proves inaccurate. [T&E E9; Dinsmore-Testimony]

==========
DECEMBER 2011
==========

DECEMBER 2011
- Victor Dinsmore, speaking to investigators, implicates 911 Dispatcher Michael "Petey" Alexander as being part of the burial of Holly Bobo's body.
- This claim is later abandoned. [T&E E9; Dinsmore-Testimony]

==========
2012
==========

2012 – FCI Thomson
Autry, Zach, and Terry Britt are incarcerated at FCI Thomson simultaneously
- Per Autry's Apr 2025 jailhouse interview: Autry and Zach were both at FCI Thomson 2012, both facing gun charges.
- This is the period in which Autry had extensive contact with Zach and formed the impressions he would later (falsely) build his testimony around. Autry later describes Zach as consistent in his alibi story and not someone he got a sense of guilt from. [Autry-Recant]

- Terry Britt was also at FCI Thomson during this time.
- During this period, Britt told Autry about a .38 special that he threw in “Black Bottom,” a location off the side of Red Bud Lake in Lexington, Tennessee.
Autry says this could have been the gun used to kill Holly Bobo. Britt said he was charged with a gun he didn't have; the .38 special was the actual gun, which he discarded.
- Britt's wife separately told Autry that Britt was "talking to people that weren't there" at home, seeing the ghost of a young girl in his kitchen who would rattle the pots and pans and vanish when he approached. Autry interprets this as Holly. [Autry-Recant]

2012
- Autry testified that he and Zach drove to Eagle Creek in Autry's vehicle to a hunting club property. They stole a deer stand and a camera.
- Autry testified that while sitting on a bank, they did methamphetamine. Autry said: "It looks like we got away with this shit" referring to Holly's disappearance.
- Autry testified that Zach replied with the most detailed account of Apr 13 Autry says he heard: "The real reason that we were there was to show Clint how to manufacture meth.
- Autry testified that Zach said they got there early, she came outside screaming and raising hell, then we took her."
- Autry testified that was the last time he and Zach spoke about Holly Bobo.

2012 – CELL PHONE ANALYSIS
- US Marshal John Walker, TBI SA Terry Dicus, and others developed a map of Holly's cell tower pings tracing her phone's movement on the day of her abduction.
- Walker had been requested by TBI for his expertise in interpreting cell tower records.
- US Marshal John Walker (also a member of the FBI's JTTF) tracked Holly's cell phone using a specialized US Marshals device fitted with four AT&T phones of the same make, model, and wattage as Holly's phone.
– An AT&T tech gave Walker four matching devices; he drove the routes over 50 times with a stopwatch across approx 3 months (into 2012), producing a map of the only route consistent with all tower pings.

==========
JANUARY 2012
==========

JANUARY 2012

– During the search warrant served on the Britt property, a photograph of Holly Bobo is found in Terry Britt's tool shed. [T&E E11]

JANUARY 2012 – Search warrant executed on Britt property
– FBI-trained human remains detection dogs alert twice, with different handlers to: a shovel, two pickaxes (axes), and a hammer in Britt's locked shed. Dogs also alert on two of Britt's vehicles, including a white Vandura van.
Tools are scattered to new locations and dogs re-identify the same items.
– Three vehicles seized.
– Computers seized.
– Britt acknowledges a hidden gun was on the property during the search.
– In a recorded jail call regarding the cadaver dog hits Britt tells Janet: "Well, then somebody else put some fucking human in that motherfucker."
– Janet tells Britt: "There ain't been no fucking human flesh in that old red van."
– Janet specifies the red van, not the Vandura the dogs actually hit on. [T&E E4]

JANUARY 2012 – Warrant Return
– As part of the search warrant on the Britt property, investigators recovered internet search history from Britt's computer:
– Jan 12, 2012 @ 8:18 AM: searches for "kidnap" and "abducted" on newvista.com.
– Jan 12, 2012 @ 8:26–8:27 AM: multiple searches for "anal rape." [Undisclosed S9 E3]

JANUARY 2012 – Wiretap Warrant
– TBI SA Brent Booth files a 25-page affidavit with Judge Creed McGinley for a wiretap on the Britt residence. Lead prosecutor Hansel McAdams signs off. [T&E E4; Britt-Affidavit]
– Affidavit concludes: "There is probable cause to believe that Terry and Janet Britt, his wife, working in concert, kidnapped and murdered Holly Bobo."
– States Britt's alibi "is fabricated by both of the target subjects."
– Notes Clint Bobo's physical description matches Britt and that "no one has been interviewed that more closely matches the description provided by Clint Bobo than Terry Britt."
– Notes Britt cut his hair after Holly disappeared, apparently to alter his appearance.
– Judge McGinley approves the wiretap. Jennifer Nichols later states at trial this was the only TBI home wiretap in Tennessee history. [T&E E4]

JANUARY 2012 – Wiretap Returns
– Britt on wiretap: "I can't talk right now on the phone."

- Others ask questions about whether police "used a blacklight to search for blood" and "did they find the boots?"
- Per Dana McLendon: Britt responds in ways indicating a guilty conscience.
- TBI agents noted that Britt would often speak in a low voice with the music turned up during calls, consistent with knowing he was being monitored.
- His sister had previously told him her phone had been tapped for a crime she committed; there was mutual awareness on both ends that calls could be recorded. [Undisclosed S9 E3]
- TBI ultimately files an official document with the court stating: "We're moving away from Terry Britt because the recording failed to pick up incriminatory statements in part because of the failure of equipment."
- The investigation of Britt is officially closed. Investigators pivot to Clint Bobo, then eventually to Dylan Adams and the Adams/Austin/Autry group. [T&E E4; Undisclosed S9 E3]

JANUARY 2012 – DNA testing deferred
- During the search of the Britt property, a blonde hair is found in the Vandura van, in a rope with duct tape.
- The hair is macroscopically and microscopically identical to Holly Bobo's hair. It has a follicle attached, making it suitable for nuclear DNA testing. [Undisclosed S9 E3]
- Mitochondrial DNA testing is performed on the hair. The result does NOT match Holly. However, mitochondrial DNA is inherited maternally and is shared by all maternal-line relatives; it is considered a less reliable exclusion test than nuclear DNA. [Undisclosed S9 E3]
- The FBI tells lead TBI agent Terry Dicus that their nuclear DNA testing capability at the time is inadequate, "terrible for nuclear DNA" and advises him to wait for better technology.
- By the time nuclear DNA testing technology would have been adequate, Dicus is no longer on the case. The hair has never been tested with nuclear DNA.
The hair remains available but idle. [Undisclosed S9 1, E3]

==========
AUGUST 2012
==========

AUGUST 2012 – TBI Supervisory Change
- John Mayer, the initial TBI special agent supervising the Holly Bobo case, retires in August 2012.
- He had been vested in the case from the start as one of the initial responders.
- TBI agent Valerie Trout on Mayer: "He spent a lot of time, he was one of the initial responders, he was vested from Jump Street, cared."

==========

SEPTEMBER 2012
==========

SEPTEMBER 2012
- Jack Vanhuser replaces Mayer as supervising agent.
Vanhuser's approach, per Trout: "the antithesis of what I just described." [Undisclosed S9 E4]
- Vanhuser oversees the PowerPoint presentation from lead agent Dicus cataloguing the evidence pointing to Terry Britt and then tells Dicus to shift focus. [Undisclosed S9 E4]

SEPTEMBER 12, 2012
—TBI conducts their second interview with Jason Autry.
- Autry, now in jail facing federal weapons charges (felon in possession of a deer rifle), gives an alibi for himself for the morning of Apr 13, 2011.
- Autry states: "I did not see Shayne or Zach at all the day Holly was kidnapped. No one has ever confessed to me that they were involved in the kidnapping." [T&E E2, E3 P1]

==========
SPRING 2013
==========

SPRING 2013 – TBI INTIMIDATION OF VOLUNTEER INVESTIGATION TEAM
- Sheila Weissaki, a private investigator and founder of the nonprofit “Without Warning” assembled a team at the request of Karen Bobo in the summer and fall of 2012 to organize the family's collected materials and help reignite public attention.
- The team included former homicide detectives from Los Angeles and Detroit, a cyber crimes PI, and legal researcher Liz Batty.
- Karen had accumulated witness statements and leads in notebooks, boxes, and on cocktail napkins that were not being organized by TBI. [Undisclosed S9 E6]
- From Apr–May 2013, the team produced and aired a 6-episode local news series including a reenactment of the abduction. The series reignited public interest in the case. TBI had not spoken publicly for months. [Undisclosed S9 E6]
- Shortly after the series aired, two TBI agents appeared unannounced at Sheila Weissaki's home.
TBI agent Joe Walker (later Dicus's replacement as lead agent) was one of them.
- After an initial confrontational exchange, Liz Batty had the team voluntarily turn over their materials within a week.
- Within a week of that turnover, TBI served Sheila with a subpoena for all emails. [Undisclosed S9 E6]
- TBI then issued what Liz Batty described as a “scathing” public media release targeting Sheila's team, a tactic she said TBI had never used before at that level. It appeared designed to discredit them and push them away from the case.

- Sheila hired an attorney and spent six figures in attorney's fees. TBI backed off when Sheila's attorney called their bluff: “If you're going to claim they're interfering with an investigation, you're going to have to show us how.” [Undisclosed S9 E6]
- Liz Batty had separately shared with TBI agent Walker her suspicion that crooked law enforcement was involved and named suspects from the online Topix discussion threads (which had nearly 100K posts about the case).
- Walker reacted with unusual intensity, asking for specific names, immediately before TBI escalated against the team. [Undisclosed S9 E6]

==========
JUNE 2013
==========

JUNE 2013 – DICUS REMOVED / INVESTIGATION "LEFT TURN
- Lead TBI agent Terry Dicus is removed from the Holly Bobo case in June 2013, approx 3 months after Walker secured Britt's quasi-admission in March 2013.
- The official grounds: “tunnel vision” on Terry Britt; refusing to acknowledge that anyone else could have committed the crime.
- What TBI leadership actually wanted him to do: focus on Clint Bobo as the prime suspect. [Undisclosed S9 E3]
- TBI RSAC Jack Vanhuser ordered Dicus to interrogate Clint Bobo again using the Reid technique with the explicit goal of making him "either Lawyer up or confess." Dicus was sent with an agent from East Tennessee.
- During the break in the interview, both agents agreed they believed Clint was telling the truth. Dicus told the East Tennessee agent about Britt and Walker's Mar 2013 jailhouse interview.
- They did not proceed with the second, confrontational stage of the Reid technique.
- Dicus was removed because he refused to put Clint through it. [Undisclosed S9 E3]
- People had told Clint Bobo that “his sister was being raped because he was lying” and they were congratulated for saying it. [Undisclosed S9 E3]
- Per Colin Miller: “Pretty soon after Dicus is removed, that is when the investigation sort of takes this left turn" away from Britt and other alternate suspects, and eventually toward the Adams / Austin group. [Undisclosed S9 E2-A]
- An agent named Joe Walker (different from US Marshal John Walker) replaced Dicus as lead TBI agent. [Undisclosed S9 E3]
- Walker (US Marshal) would later state that when he told TBI he had given them Brady material that matched all the evidence and pointed in a different direction, TBI filed an internal affairs complaint against him.
- TBI's claim: Walker created his cell phone route map only after Holly's body and belongings were found, in an attempt to retrofit the evidence.

- Walker's response: he produced records showing the map was created in the months after the abduction, before the body was found. He was cleared. [Undisclosed S9 E3, E5]

==========
MARCH 2013
==========

MARCH 2013 — Walker's jailhouse interview of Terry Britt
- Britt is in jail pending other charges involving a different kidnapping and attempted rape.
- TBI lead agent Terry Dicus asks Walker to visit Britt.
- TBI was considering charging Janet Britt and wanted to know if Britt would deal.
- Walker opens the interview: "I know you're a sociopath...I know you find Holly Bobo attractive." [Undisclosed S9 E3]
- Walker lays out his full reconstruction of the crime to Britt:
- Britt saw Holly at Dollar General about 3 weeks prior and started monitoring her schedule.
- Britt arrived at the Bobo property around 7:30 AM.
- Britt noticed both parents' cars were gone but did not realize Clint's car was in the garage.
- When Holly came outside around 7:45 AM, Britt fought with her for approx 45 seconds before crouching down in the carport with her.
- Britt got back in the vehicle around 8:00 AM and drove north on lesser-traveled roads.
- Britt reached the freeway area around 8:30 AM and spent approx 25 minutes near the freeway.
- Britt drove south, throwing Holly's smaller items out of the window along Yellow Springs Road and larger items along Gooch Creek Rd around 9:25 AM.
- When Britt arrived home around 9:35 AM, the dogs barking, woke Janet up. [Undisclosed S9 E3]
- Britt's immediate response: "That boy don't know what he saw." (referring to Clint Bobo's description of the man who took Holly)
- Shortly after, Britt said: "Sounds like you have it all figured out. I'll plead to it and you can close the case." He specifically requested a 20-year sentence and wanted to be transferred to a different jail near Nashville, an older facility with white inmates rather than what he described as "a lot of young Black guys." [Undisclosed S9 E3]
- Walker told Britt he needed TBI present to take a formal statement.
- Britt said: "I can't give you something that I don't have."
- Walker interpreted this as: Britt could not give the body's location while locked up; he had been back to the site, and the remains were no longer intact. [Undisclosed S9 E3]
- As Walker moved toward the door to leave, Britt stood up, followed him, and said: "If I need to show you something, how long will it take you to get me out of here?"

- Walker told him it would take a couple of days (he would need to get a writ). That was the last Walker spoke to Britt. [Undisclosed S9 E3]
- Walker turns his report over to TBI. The TBI follow-up never happens.
- At a later hearing, the state attempts to characterize Britt's statements as sarcasm.
- Walker, drawing on 35 years of law enforcement and at least 20 formal statements taken, testified he did not read it that way. [T&E E1; Undisclosed S9 E3]
- Walker also lays out the evidence: Clint's physical description, the phone route north to Kelly Ridge, the route south toward Britt's property with belongings discarded on Gooch Creek Rd. [T&E E1]

==========
JULY 13, 2013
==========

JULY 13, 2013
- Dylan's friend Jason Kilzer had a prior felony conviction.
- Jason's mother Sheila Kilzer kept a Taurus .38 special revolver in a satchel bag on her motorcycle.
- On Jul 13, 2013, Jason drove Dylan home on the motorcycle, dropped Dylan off, and was later apprehended at a gas station.
- As a convicted felon, Jason's constructive possession of the revolver in the satchel constituted a federal firearms charge. [Undisclosed S9 E4]
- Federal prosecutor Beth Boswell, simultaneously handling multiple Bobo-related cases at the state level, charged Dylan with aiding and abetting Kilzer, on the theory that Dylan gave Kilzer the gun knowing it was illegal for a felon to possess it.

==========
AUGUST 2013
==========

- Dicus was removed from the Holly Bobo case in June 2013 and Dylan's gun arrest follows the very next month, with Boswell immediately bringing federal charges.
- The sequence creates maximum leverage over Dylan at the exact moment the investigation pivots away from Britt. [Undisclosed S9 E4]
- Dylan was not at the gas station when Jason was apprehended.
- "These look like bogus federal charges against Dylan Adams." [Undisclosed S9 E4]
- Dylan faces 46–57 months in federal prison on these charges; 4–5 years.
- This leverage is used to coerce cooperation in the Holly Bobo investigation.

- TBI SA's Brent Booth and Jeff Jackson interrogate Dylan at least half a dozen times while he is locked up on the gun charges.
- An anonymous inmate tells Dr. Spirko the interrogations happened on a near-daily basis. [Undisclosed S9 E4]

==========
OCTOBER 17, 2013
==========

OCTOBER 17, 2013
- Britt in federal custody until Mar 2025 at FCI Thomson.

==========
FALL 2013
==========

FALL 2013
- Ernest "Larry" Stone was not just a ginseng hunter; he was also a freshwater pearl diver on the Tennessee River, documented on reality TV shows Dixie Divers and Going Pearl Crazy in fall 2013.
- His family was proud of his appearances on the shows.

==========
JANUARY 24, 2014
==========

JANUARY 24, 2014 — SHEILA KILZER PHONE CALL TO TBI SA BRENT BOOTH
- TBI SA Brent Booth receives a phone call from Sheila Kilzer on Friday, Jan 24, 2014.
- Booth's written report dates the call as Jan 25; Ep. 4 notes the actual date was the 24th. [Undisclosed S9 E4]
- Sheila identifies herself as Jason Kilzer's mother and claims Dylan Adams told her, unprompted, while high on drugs at her home, that he knew what happened to Holly.
- Per Booth's report, Sheila says Dylan told her: Clint Bobo owed people money and worked out a deal with his brother "A-Train" to take Holly, beat her up, and send photos to her parents to extort money; A-Train came to the Bobo home and took Holly to their grandfather's house in Sugar Tree, Decatur County; Dylan walked in on the beating; A-Train hit her too hard and killed her; Body was near the grandfather's place.
- Sheila said "A-Train is Zach Adams, brother of Dylan." [Undisclosed S9 E4]
- Booth's report contained at least two significant errors: (1) he wrote Dylan and Jason were locked up on drug charges but they were actually locked up on gun charges; (2) he identified "A-Train" as Zach Adams when A-Train was Jason Autry's nickname. [Undisclosed S9 E4]

==========

JANUARY 27, 2014
==========

JANUARY 27, 2014
- Booth and Jeff Jackson meet with Sheila Kilzer in person at the local fire chief's office for a follow-up interview.

==========
FEBRUARY 2014
==========

FEBRUARY 2014 – PEARL RACKET SHENANIGANS
- Tony Craig is pulled over with Christopher and Amber Bray; They were found with stolen pearls.

==========
FEBRUARY 5, 2014
==========

FEBRUARY 5, 2014
- Booth's clarifying report corrects the A-Train identification; A-Train is Jason Autry, not Zach Adams.
- In this corrected version, Zach Adams is Autry's accessory.
- The report adds: Dylan told her he went to the grandfather's house, saw a blonde girl with his brother and Jason Autry; Zach met Dylan at the door and said, "Get out of here. If you tell anybody what you saw here, I'll kill you myself." [Undisclosed S9 E4]
- Three possibilities: (1) Sheila fabricated everything to get a plea deal for Jason; (2) Sheila told Booth only about a blonde girl Dylan described, and Booth constructed the rest; (3) Sheila told the truth and Booth's errors were simple sloppiness.
- What is confirmed: Jason Kilzer got a sweet plea deal on the federal gun charges and full immunity in the Holly Bobo case. [Undisclosed S9 E4]

==========
FEBRUARY 28, 2014
==========

FEBRUARY 28, 2014
- TBI and FBI execute search warrants and arrest Zach Adams on charges related to Holly's murder.
- TBI Director Mark Gwyn and District Attorney Hansel McAdams hold a press conference.
- Gwyn: "Hopefully we'll be able to return Holly home safely to her parents. That's our goal."
- At the time of arrest, the state falsely told the grand jury there was a video of a rape that occurred. This claim is proven false.
- Two other men were later indicted for allegedly having and then destroying this never-existing video. [T&E E11]

==========
SPRING 2014
==========

DENNIS BENJAMIN – BACKGROUND
- Retired Memphis police officer; known in Memphis's waterfront industry as “the COP” aka Chief of Port; he ran things in the city's river and tugboat industry.
Known for knowing which rules could be bent; operated in the gray space between law and influence.
- Spent decades in Memphis vice and gang units. Almost certainly had a long prior relationship with Jennifer Nichols, who prosecuted in Memphis during the same period.
- Retired by 2013, but still connected to law enforcement through longtime buddy TBI Regional Special Agent in Charge Jack Vanhuser; communicated with TBI agent Jeff Jackson; benefited from TBI agent Valerie Trout, who handled witnesses whose stories could be shaped through DCS (Department of Children's Services) pressure.
- Came to the case through law enforcement acquaintances, a cop friend of a cop friend who knew the Bobos; Benjamin sought an introduction to the Bobo family, offering to help.
- The family initially declined. A part-time deputy called back and pressed the introduction and eventually Benjamin got in. [T&E E11]

DENNIS BENJAMIN – WITNESS NETWORK
- Victor Dinsmore was an early suspect turned key trial witness. His daughter, Amber, was dating Carl Statler.
- Carl Statler testified at trial to incriminating statements allegedly made by Zach.
- Carl’s sisters, Danielle Statler married Jaime Darnell.
- Jaime Darnell surfaced in TBI reports and testified against Zach at trial.
- Dinsmore’s neighbor, Brian Vitt was an off-duty cop and late-filed state witness who claimed to have been mowing his yard on Apr 13, 2011; his witness statements lent credence to Autry's false testimony.
- Rebecca Earp began dating Jason Hugley after breaking up with Zach.
- Jason Hugley later told investigators that Zach made incriminating statements to him.
- Jason Hugley ex-girlfriend, Tara Carrington, was the mother of children in DCS custody.
- Clint Bobo was Tara’s DCS caseworker.
- Tara's statements led to Zach Adams's first arrest on unrelated charges that were eventually dropped. [T&E E11]

SPRING 2014 – Dennis Benjamin tracks down Victor Dinsmore in Indianapolis, IN
- Dinsmore relocated to the Indianapolis area with his wife Sandy after Holly's disappearance.

- Benjamin presents himself as a retired cop working for the Bobo family, alongside TBI and FBI. Benjamin finds Dinsmore and records at least one confrontation.
- In the recorded confrontation, Benjamin threatens Dinsmore with the death penalty and leverages his TBI connections: "I can get you on the phone right now with Jack Van Hoosier with TBI."
- Benjamin tells Dinsmore "Autry's wanting a deal and Zach's wanting a deal for the body" attempting to using other witnesses' status as leverage.
- Dinsmore flatly and repeatedly denies seeing Holly in any truck or at Dottie's: "I did not see that fucking girl. I did not know her before or after. I had no fucking role in her abduction."
- Dinsmore refuses to cooperate and the meeting ends badly. [T&E E9, E11; Dinsmore-Coaching]

==========
May 2014
==========

MARCH 5, 2014
- Dinsmore gives statement to TBI agent Valerie Trout after Zach's Feb 28, 2014 arrest.
- The arrest had been on the news; Dinsmore knew investigators had searched Zach's house and grandfather's house.
- Dinsmore says Zach had hidden his grandfather's white Nissan truck, but does not specifically say it was hidden at Dinsmore's property.
- He also states that his wife was in the hospital the day Holly disappeared (this later proves inaccurate as well). [T&E E9; Dinsmore-Testimony]

==========
May 2014
==========

MAY 2014
- Blake Barnett (Holly's ex-boyfriend) is arrested on charges of kidnapping and domestic assault. [Undisclosed S9 E2]

==========
AUGUST 2014
==========

DYLAN ADAMS - BACKGROUND
- Zach's younger brother; documented learning disabilities; received a special education completion certificate (not a standard high school diploma). Highly suggestible and vulnerable to manipulation.
- Dr. Spirko's neuropsychological analysis: Dylan's deficits cluster in frontal lobe tasks, specifically source memory (distinguishing firsthand from suggested memory), and distinguishing false from true memory.

- This makes him an ideal suggestibility victim for a skilled interrogator. [T&E E8, 11]

DYLAN ADAMS — FEDERAL CASE
- Dylan's federal docket has approx 70 entries; 25 documents are missing from the public record entirely.
- The last 6–8 entries are sealed. The terms of his plea deal remain unknown outside a small group.
- Beth Boswell plays a dual role: she is simultaneously Dylan's court-appointed defense attorney on the federal case; a federal and state prosecutor handling multiple Holly Bobo-related cases (the Terry Britt plea, the Jason Autry plea, and others); and in a romantic relationship with Dennis Benjamin, who is embedded in the investigation as a witness handler. [T&E E8, E11]

AUGUST 2014 — Dylan Adams's plea deal and placement with Benjamin
- Dylan settles his federal charges in Aug 2014; he enters an Alford plea.
As part of that deal, Dylan's attorneys waive all discovery rights.
- Dylan receives no discovery, including evidence that would later be described as affirmatively proving his innocence.
- The state's offer: Alford plea, but no discovery. [T&E E8, E9. E11; Undisclosed S9 E5-A]
- Whether a defendant can waive the right to discovery before pleading when that discovery constitutes affirmative substantive evidence of innocence is an unsettled legal question (cf. Ruiz).
- This is a basis for a potential appeal. Sealed records about Dylan's plea and his placement exist and have not been disclosed. [Undisclosed S9 E5-A]
- The terms include a required condition: Dylan must go live at Dennis Benjamin's Memphis home with Benjamin and his wife as a condition of his federal probation.
- Dylan had never met Benjamin until the day before his plea bargain and sentence.
- Benjamin has full unsupervised access to Dylan at his home for approx 6 weeks.
- Benjamin takes Dylan to a relative's children's birthday party; Dylan is left unattended in the house with Benjamin's wife and daughter. [T&E E8, E9, E11]
- Benjamin coaches Dylan repeatedly on the story he is to tell TBI. The details he plants track directly to what Jeff Jackson and Brent Booth feed Dylan during the Sept 17, 2014 interrogation.
- Benjamin communicates with TBI agents Jeff Jackson and Brent Booth throughout this period.
- Dana McLendon: "Dylan didn't confess to a detective. Dennis Benjamin confessed for him." [T&E E8, E11]

==========
SEPTEMBER 1, 2014
==========

SEPTEMBER 1, 2014 – Holly Bobo's remains found
- "Lyin Larry" Stone found Holly's skull beneath an upside-down bucket in the woods near Verizon cell tower 249, the same tower Derrick Hall's phone was standing at on the morning Holly disappeared.
- The discovery location was roughly 200–250 yards from the interstate, three miles from Shayne Austin's home, and five from Zachary Adams' home.

The 911 call @ 12:38 PM TRANSCRIPT
- Dispatcher (Trish from Benton County): "Hey, this is Trish from Benton County. I have a guy I got him on the line, Mr. Stone. He's up by the cell phone tower behind the marathon station."
- Stone: "I was walking me and my cousin I used to dig up with my daddy up there to this tire. We used we work for Midway and we decided to go up there and look gone still here. So I get out of the truck. I walk out the woods. I walk through the first holler and I come up this next where the old logging Rd used to go up through there. And then I walked a little bit further and I bent down to dig a fucking plant and I looked and I seen my skull. So I stood up. I started looking around for the bottom the rest of it. And then I found the bottom jaw 15 feet from it."
- "It does look to be it looks like a girl a woman's skull. It don't look like a man's skull. But it is human skull. It is a human skull."
- Dispatcher: "Okay, all right, brother. Well, are you still parked there?"
- Stone: "Yeah, I understand...I'm not touching it. You can kind of step back from it. Kind of step back from it."
- Dispatcher: "So because it's a crime scene now. If there is if it is. So kind of just step back from it and stand there until they get there."

- "Lyin Larry" Stone was Facebook friends with Tony Craig, the woman in the pearl van who was with Christopher and Amber Bray when the pearls were found in February 2014.
- "Lyin Larry" Stone stumbles upon Holly's remains exactly six days after a new district attorney was sworn in and days after a new sheriff took office.
- Three and a half years of nothing. Then, the week the county offices changed hands, a pearl diver walks up on Holly's skull behind an overturned bucket in woods that the property owner said had already been searched more than once.
- The timing of the remains discovery coinciding with new leadership in the DA's office and sheriff's department and Stone's connections to people central to the pearl theft investigation raise questions about whether the discovery was truly accidental or whether the search priorities shifted with the new administration.

- Holly's skeletal remains recovered approx 20 miles from her home at Kelly Ridge, in a remote wooded area near (but not visible from) I-40.
- This is the exact location where her cell phone was stationary for 25–30 minutes on the morning of Apr 13, 2011.
- Walker had searched this broad area himself but it is very large. He was not present at the recovery. [T&E E1]
- Some of Holly's personal items were found at the Kelly Ridge site with the remains, including a keychain with an "H" on it and chapstick.
- Not all of her belongings were discarded from the vehicle going south; some stayed at the site where she was killed. [Undisclosed S9 E2-A]
- Only Holly's upper body remains were recovered: skull, some ribs, part of the sternum, and teeth.
- No lower torso or large bones were found.
- Holly's purse and its contents were present (wallet, driver's license); the $20 Dana had put on the counter was missing.
- A three-gallon bucket was found at the scene; the first thing "Lyin Larry" Stone noticed before spotting any remains.
- Liz Batty, who took detailed trial notes and reviewed the scene layout, observed that the distribution of remains and items along the ditch resembled an Easter egg hunt: items laid out progressively, possibly emptied from the bucket, with no evidence of a shallow grave or the degree of burial one would expect after three years in the elements. [Undisclosed S9 E6-A]
- DA Matt Stowe, who had just been elected to replace Hansel McAdams and was sworn in roughly a week before the remains were found, texted Liz Batty immediately after the discovery.
- He said the scene felt staged: not enough leaf cover or soil accumulation for three years of outdoor exposure.
- The area had been searched multiple times before; people who had been on those search teams told Liz Batty that the exact area where the remains were found had been covered. [Undisclosed S9 E6-A]
- Liz Batty's theory: someone knew Walker's cell phone route reconstruction and placed Holly's remains and belongings in the area Walker's map identified to suggest she had been there all along.
- TBI agent Joe Walker had contacted Liz asking "Where did y'all get the map?" after Sheila Weissaki's team produced a version of it in 2013, indicating TBI was concerned about how widely Walker's routing analysis had circulated. [Undisclosed S9 E6-A]

==========
SEPTEMBER 8-9,2014
==========

SEPTEMBER 8–9, 2014
- TBI SA Laura Hodge's violent crime response team arrived.

– The skull and initial bones had already been removed and taken to a West Tennessee forensics center before her team got there.
– Her team conducted a line search with metal detectors and cadaver dogs.

==========
SEPTEMBER 11,2014
==========

SEPTEMBER 11, 2014
– Benjamin contacts authorities to report a "confession" Dylan allegedly made to him the night before.
– This is approx 10 days after Holly's remains were found.
– Benjamin then brings Dylan to the TBI; Dylan tries to repeat this supposed confession in the presence of TBI SA's Jeff Jackson and Brent Booth. [T&E E8, E9, E11]

BEFORE SEPTEMBER 17, 2014 – Agents meet with Benjamin
– TBI agents Jackson and Booth meet with Benjamin before the Sept 17 interrogation to get the full story he claims Dylan told him.
– When Jackson later references "already having the gist of it" in the interrogation, he is referencing that pre-interrogation meeting with Benjamin, not anything Dylan has told him directly.
– Dana McLendon: "Here's the playbook. Retired cop Dennis Benjamin finds and tunes up a witness or potential defendant. TBI SA Brent Booth takes it from there." [T&E E8, E9, E11]

==========
SEPTEMBER 17,2014
==========

SEPTEMBER 17, 2014
5:58 PM
– TBI interrogation of Dylan Adams.
– Location: Jackson TBI office interview room.
– Agents: Jeff Jackson (conducts most questioning) and TBI SA Brent Booth (also present; lead TBI agent on case).
– Miranda rights form read to Dylan; he signs without being asked to paraphrase or confirm he understood.
– Dr. Spirko: "The appropriate way to ascertain whether someone understands something is to have them paraphrase it back to you in their own words."

WHAT DYLAN ACTUALLY VOLUNTEERS (his real account, independent of coaching):
– Was at Zach's house the night of Apr 12, 2011.
– Jason Autry came over around 7:00 or 8:00 PM
– They were shooting dope (methamphetamine intravenously; Dylan consistently says "shooting," agents repeatedly say "smoking" and try to override him).

– Zach and Autry left between midnight and 1:00 AM.
– Dylan did not see them again until 9:30 or 10 the next morning (Apr 13).
– That is the full extent of what Dylan volunteers.
– Per Colin Miller: the sum of original content Dylan contributed is: "I was doing drugs with Jason Autry and my brother Zach. They left without an explanation."
– Every other story element: the planning of a rape, Holly's name, what happened to her, the locations, the roles, is introduced by the agents and fed back to Dylan. [T&E E8; full interrogation transcript; Undisclosed S9 E4–A]

HOW THE INTERROGATION PROCEEDS:
– Agents use a consistent pattern: introduce a fact Dylan has not stated; express it as confirmation of something Dylan said; then ask a question whose answer treats the injected fact as established.
– When Dylan pushes back, the agents simply repeat the false framing with more confidence until Dylan acquiesces.
– Dylan cannot recall things one would expect him to know, phone numbers for people he called regularly, for example, consistent with his documented memory deficits.
– Dylan describes Holly as wearing "long pants, pink shirt" (the description everyone publicly knew at the time).
– He mentions no blood, no specific injuries consistent with the crime scene.
– Dylan blushes visibly when agents introduce sexual terms; Dr. Spirko: "A person who actually participated in a violent rape would not use polite, clinical, embarrassed language when describing it."
– When asked about blood at the scene, Dylan describes minor injuries (black eye, small cut on lip).
– Agents note two pools of blood had formed on the floor; if Dylan's account were true, his DNA would be in that blood.
– No DNA evidence ever connects Dylan to any crime scene.
– Agents tell Dylan what he is supposed to remember rather than asking him to recall independently.
– The agents appear frustrated that Benjamin has not adequately prepped Dylan; they must supply details repeatedly that Dylan cannot produce. [T& E8; Dylan-Interrogation]

ADDITIONAL DETAILS FROM THE FULL INTERROGATION TRANSCRIPT [Dylan-Interrogation]:

THE DAY AFTER (Apr 14, 2011) – produced under sustained agent pressure:
– Dylan claims that the day after the alleged crime (Thurs, Apr 14), he, Zach, and Shayne drove together to get Xanax bars.
– During this trip, Shayne said the rape "was good."
– Zach said "it was good, I told you I get that."

– This is the entire post-crime "conversation" Dylan can produce about what happened.

WHAT DYLAN ALLEGEDLY TOLD OTHERS:
- John Tubbs: Dylan claims he told John Tubbs (also referenced as "John Dove") that Holly was "shot in the back of the head" and was located "between the two sawmills."
– Agents reference John Tubbs as having reported this to TBI and identified Dylan as the source. – Dylan attributes his knowledge to having overheard Zach on the phone.
- WC Austin (Phillip Austin's son): Dylan told him Zach shot Holly; this eventually got back to Zach Adams.
- Other people Dylan says he told something to: Wesley Bird; a person named Jason (last name unclear in transcript).

ZACH ADAMS'S THREAT TO DYLAN:
- Agents read Dylan the quote Zach allegedly said after learning Dylan was talking: "You tell my brother he's the one that started this shit and if he don't shut his mouth he'll be in the hole right beside her."
- Dylan confirms receiving this threat.
– Zach subsequently beat Dylan severelyl prolonged beating with visible facial scarring.
– Dylan hid at "Cub's house" for days afterward. The beating happened after Dylan told WC Austin something that got back to Zach.[Dylan-Interrogation]

PHONE RECORDS / EVIDENCE DESTRUCTION:
- Dylan says he disposed of bloody clothes by bagging them and putting them in a roadside trash dump the same day or the following morning.
- He had a prepaid phone in his grandmother's name, later transferred to his grandfather's name, around the same time as the events in question. [Dylan-Interrogation]

SHAYNE AUSTIN'S GRANDMOTHER'S HOUSE (Wonita Hickerson):
- Dylan claims Holly was held at Shayne Austin's grandmother's house (Wonita Hickerson) on Yellow Springs Road before being brought to Zach's house.
– Basis: Shayne "told me he had her in a basement."
– Dylan locates the house on aerial imagery during the interrogation as being on a road he calls "Pew Road," down a hill past a cemetery, in a hollow with fields around it.
– Dylan was never inside the house and has no firsthand knowledge of Holly being there.
– Wonita Hickerson had recently died at the time of the interrogation. [Dylan-Interrogation]

VICTOR DINSMORE REFERENCE – in an earlier version of Dylan's statement:
- At approx the 3-hour mark, agents ask Dylan why he "put a man's name in this that wasn't involved" (a reference to Dinsmore).

– This confirms that in a prior statement (before this recorded session), Dylan had mentioned Dinsmore's name.
– Agents work to have Dylan clarify or walk back the mention, keeping Dylan's story on a separate track from the Dinsmore narrative being developed through TBI coaching. [Dylan-Interrogation]

INTERROGATION END:
– Jackson formally closes the record at approx 10:14–10:15 PM on Sept 17, 2014.
– Dylan Adams is then taken to jail. [Dylan-Interrogation]

RESULT OF THE INTERROGATION:
– TBI conducts search warrants on houses and vehicles in response to the "confession."
– They find nothing. Not one element of Dylan's "confession" surfaces in the state's proof three years later at the Zach Adams trial.
– The confession is demonstrably false and physically disproven at every turn. [T&E E8, E9, E11]

AFTER THE INTERROGATION:
– When Dylan is moved to jail, Benjamin keeps calling (dozens of calls) continuing the influence he had built during the six weeks Dylan lived with him. [T&E E11]

TERRY BRITT INTERVIEW (for comparison)
– TBI interview of Terry Britt is played at the end of E8 as a contrast to Dylan's interrogation.
– Britt describes the mindset of a predator in clinical, knowing terms: how someone would abduct a victim for personal gratification, how "fantasy world" gives way to "reality" once he has the body and must decide what to do with it.
– The language is experienced, specific, and consistent with someone who has firsthand knowledge; directly contrasted with Dylan's confused, embarrassed, secondhand-sounding account.[T&E E8]

==========
SEPTEMBER 2014
==========

SEPTEMBER 2014 – SHAYNE AUSTIN IMMUNITY DEAL
– After Holly's remains were found in Sept 2014, TBI and prosecutors approached Shayne Austin with an immunity agreement. Shayne, unable to afford an estimated $60K defense cost, accepted. [Undisclosed S9 E5]
– Specific immunity language: "all charges arising out of the disposal, destruction, burial, and/or concealment of Bobo's deceased body."
– The immunity covered only disposal / concealment, not participation in the kidnapping, rape, or murder itself. [Undisclosed S9 E5]

- Shayne's story to law enforcement under the immunity deal: Holly was still alive when they reached the Tennessee River; Zach said her body went into the river.
- This account was inconsistent with the state's theory and could not be reconciled with the trial narrative. [Undisclosed S9 E5]
- Shayne passed two polygraphs administered by TBI.
- Despite the polygraph results, TBI revoked his immunity when he could not provide what they needed for a conviction.
- A document in Shayne's handwriting introduced at trial by the defense confirming Shayne provided information to the DA regarding the kidnapping, rape, and murder of Holly Bobo.
- Rita Austin argued the document lacked context.
- The judge ruled it hearsay so the context of the letter was never read into the record.
- After losing the deal, Shayne lost his job and was ostracized in the community. [Undisclosed S9 E5]
- In the period leading up to his death, he had recently been fired from his job, missed a flight home and was described by his mother as "very messed up."

==========
JANUARY 2015
==========

JANUARY 2015
- "Lyin Larry" Stone posts on Tony Craig's Facebook: "You home now? Hope you're doing good."

==========
FEBRUARY 2015
==========

FEBRUARY 2015 – Shayne Austin dies by suicide
- Shayne Austin, whose immunity deal was revoked after he could not provide what the state wanted, dies by suicide in a hotel room in Bartow, FL.
- Per his parents: the TBI was relentless in trying to get Shayne to confess and testify against the others.
- Despite passing two polygraphs and no physical evidence against him, he faced constant pressure and threats, and insinuations throughout the community.
- His parents share a letter he left behind for them labeled "falsely accused." [T&E E2, E3 P1]
- Shayne's suicide note included this passage: "The current administration at the TBI is now willing to hang three innocent men knowingly. I know we are not perfect. We have made many mistakes, but I have never physically hit any woman." [Undisclosed S9 E5]
- The state attempted to frame Shayne's suicide as evidence of his guilt. Shayne's family countered that TBI persecution, revoked immunity, job loss, and community pressure was what drove him over the edge. [Undisclosed S9 E5]

- Victor Dinsmore later testified that he witnessed Shayne Austin's immunity get taken from him. [T&E E9; Dinsmore-Testimony]

==========
JUNE 2015
==========

JUNE 2015 — Jason Autry indicted
- Autry is officially named as a defendant alongside Zach Adams and Dylan Adams in the Holly Bobo kidnapping, rape, and murder case.
- He is in federal custody on the pre-existing weapons charge at the time. [T&E E3 P1]

==========
2015–2016 — AUTRY'S STORY DEVELOPS (pre-trial)
==========

2015 / 2016
- After changing defense teams (Fletcher Long and John Harbison removed; Michael Scholl takes over, brings private investigator Clark Chapman), Autry receives full discovery from his attorney: phone records, TBI investigative reports (IRs), case documentation; he studies it in his cell for approx 18 months.
- Over months, Scholl shuttles between Autry and the prosecution, refining the narrative.
- Two attorneys and two prosecutors questioned Autry simultaneously at points.
- Autry and Scholl put the story together in approx three days working from IRs and phone records, layering fabrication onto true facts his phone records confirmed. [T&E E2; Autry-Recant]
- During this period, Autry attempts suicide by hanging twice.
- Guards cut him down on at least one occasion. He is placed in a suicide tank multiple times. [T&E E2; Autry-Recant]
- Rita Austin testified that during a visit to Jason Autry in prison, Autry showed them a report about pink underwear found in evidence.
- During the same visit, Autry told them that Holly had been shot from the back of the head, with the bullet exiting under her right eye, and described the bullet casings found at the scene.
- Autry testified that a few months after the abduction, Shayne Austin and Jason Autry brought Victor Dinsmore a pistol in exchange for pills.

==========
FEBRUARY 2017
==========

FEBRUARY 2017 — Autry's deal formalized
- Autry agrees to testify against Zach Adams covering elements of kidnapping, rape, and murder; in return, receives leniency on sentencing.
- Per Dr. Spirko, the written terms of the plea deal were not formalized until after Autry's testimony was given and after Zach's appeals were denied. [T&E E2]

FEBRUARY 7, 2017 — Prosecution field trip with Autry
- Night before the field trip, Scholl rehearses the story with Autry.
- Scholl: "We're going down the river tomorrow. I want you to walk them through it tonight."
- Autry rehearses; Scholl: "That'll work."
- Day of: a caravan of vehicles takes Autry, the prosecution team (including Jennifer Nichols), TBI agents, and attorneys on a site visit.
- Autry shows them: (1) a barn on his grandmother's farm on Yellow Springs Road (since demolished), where he claims Zach said the rape occurred; (2) the location where he claims he met Zach, Dylan, and Shayne at Shayne's trailer at 30 Yellow Springs Road on the morning of Apr 13, 2011. [T&E E2, E3 P1]

==========
2017 — PRE-TRIAL DISCOVERY IRREGULARITIES
==========

2017 — TBI GAVE DIFFERENT DISCOVERY TO AUTRY'S DEFENSE ATTORNEY
- TBI agent Joe Walker (the replacement for Dicus) provided Autry's defense attorney with different discovery than was given to other defendants, specifically, different cell phone records.
- Walker testified under oath that this was done at the direction of prosecutor Jennifer Nichols. [Undisclosed S9 E5]
- Separately: none of Jason Autry's TBI statements were ever recorded.
- TBI agent Kathy Ferguson stated this was at the attorney's request.
- The absence of recorded statements means there is no verbatim record of what Autry actually said, only written TBI reports. [Undisclosed S9 E5]
- Prosecutor Hagerman acknowledged on the record that Dylan Adams's statement was "insufficient, incomplete," and that he "wouldn't want Dylan's statement to be the only piece of evidence." [Undisclosed S9 E5]
- Autry has been to prison three times for theft and drugs. He was charged in this case at the time of his testimony and testified hoping for leniency.
- Autry is represented by Robert Parish and Michael Scholl, who replaced two former attorneys who lost their law licenses (Fletcher Long and John Harbison).
- Autry admits he lied to law enforcement repeatedly, including in media interviews after his arrest, and continued writing letters proclaiming his innocence after learning his mail was being scanned by prison officials. His former attorneys, he implied, had advised him to proclaim innocence.

- Autry wrote letters to Lisa Autry and Linda stating he would be out of prison by Christmas and "getting out soon," respectively, while simultaneously claiming to have no knowledge of his sentence.
- Autry admits he was in solitary confinement while in prison.
- Autry admitted TBI agents "almost broke two of his fingers" during questioning on this case.
- Autry confirmed that his attorney Jeff Jackson told him both Zach and Shayne had signed statements against him, suggesting he understood the evidentiary landscape when he decided to cooperate.
- Autry had discovery material in his cell for approximately a month before it was seized. He was observed showing Austin family members discovery reports through prison glass, including details about bullet trajectory and casings, while simultaneously testifying he had no access to discovery.
- Jennifer Nichols acknowledged meeting with Autry without law enforcement present and taking no notes of those meetings, making those discussions unavailable to the defense.
- A document signed into evidence was described by the prosecution not as an immunity agreement but as a "Proffer Letter" meaning the state could not use what Autry told them directly against him, provided the information was honest. Whether or not it amounted to a functional immunity deal was contested at trial.
- When asked about specific phone contacts with Angela Scott, Autry answered: "If your records reflect that, that's true."
- Autry repeated "As I testified" and "That's correct" frequently. Jennifer Thompson spent approximately three hours cross-examining him solely on maps and driving routes.
- Post-trial recantation: Autry later recanted his entire trial testimony, stating it was fabricated and that he had been coached by the State throughout the process. He has said he came forward out of guilt over the lies he told under oath.

==========
MAY 2017
==========

MAY 18, 2017 — TBI SA Brent Booth visits Victor Dinsmore in Indianapolis
- Approx two months before trial. Booth arrives at Dinsmore's home with a letter of immunity already prepared.
- Booth opens: "Since we've talked, Jason has rolled. Did he flip all the way? Yeah."
- Booth then proceeds to tell Dinsmore what Autry is going to testify to, framing it as helping Dinsmore "remember": "Let me tell you what'll be testified to. It might help you remember."
- Key details Booth feeds to Dinsmore:

- Zach was driving; Autry was in the passenger seat; Austin was in the middle; Dylan in the back seat (Dinsmore pushes back: "I didn't see Dylan").
- Booth says Autry will testify they came to Dottie's and Zach "got out, first thing he done was punched Austin right in the face".
- Booth says Autry will testify that Zach hid his white Nissan truck in Dinsmore's pole barn that day, that four rims had to be moved to get it inside, and that Dinsmore's wife Sandy saw them put it there.
- Booth says Dick Adams and Dinsmore's employer at the water company came and retrieved the truck.
- Dinsmore initially and repeatedly denies any of this: "I know he didn't hide the damn thing in my pole barn."
- Under sustained pressure from Booth, Dinsmore gradually acquiesces: "It could have happened...Yeah, let's say it happened."
- Booth: "The more pressure I put on him, the more y'all can remember, the more it helps push this damn case to where maybe it'll plea."
- By end of May 18 session, Dinsmore has "remembered" the truck being hidden in his pole barn, the rims being moved, and his wife seeing it. [T&E E9; Dinsmore-Coaching]

MAY 19, 2017 — Booth returns to Dinsmore's home
- Booth records a second interview to "clean things up" (his words).
- Booth opens: "I didn't want to put words in your mouth yesterday...I didn't want you saying anything that wasn't true."
- Dinsmore now fully confirms the truck story, with his wife Sandy adding corroborating details.
- The story is now that the white Nissan was in the barn for "two or three days maybe" and "Dick came and got it."
- Dinsmore's wife Sandy also "remembers" Jamie Darnell coming to their house, seeing a firearm, and telling Sandy to get rid of it because "there might be a body" on it.
- Sandy later threw this gun off a bridge on Jeannette Holladay Rd.
- This .32 caliber pistol becomes the alleged murder weapon at trial.
- Autry's trial testimony also vouches for this same gun and the same truck.
— Autry and Dinsmore corroborate each other on the murder weapon and the truck, neither independently verified by physical evidence. [T&E E9; Dinsmore-Coaching]

==========
SEPTEMBER 2017 — TRIAL OF ZACH ADAMS, HARDIN COUNTY COURT, SAVANNAH, TN
==========

SEPTEMBER 9, 2017 — Trial begins
- Trial opens in Savannah, Tennessee. Holly's father is the first witness. Nine-day trial. The world watches. [T&E E3 P1]
- Zach Adams went to trial with a solo attorney (no co-counsel) who was suffering from depression at the time.

– At a subsequent hearing, she took the witness stand and acknowledged she was "dropping balls left and right."
– She also described experiencing misogyny from the male co-defense attorneys on the other defendants' cases. [Undisclosed S9 E5-A]

SEPTEMBER 9–12, 2017 (Days 1–4)
– State lays out its case. No witness yet flatly states they saw Zach Adams commit any crime. [T&E E3 P1]

SEPTEMBER 12–13, 2017 (approx Day 4–5) – Jason Autry testifies
– Autry takes the stand as the state's star witness.
– His testimony covers all elements: kidnapping, rape, and murder.
– He is the witness through whom the murder weapon is introduced.
– He never makes eye contact with Zach Adams during his testimony.
– AUTRY WAS NOT SUPPOSED TO TESTIFY THAT DAY: TBI SA Brent Booth was the scheduled witness for the day. – Per trial observer Liz Batty, the prosecution appeared to be losing the jury; testimony had been dry and made a last-minute decision to put Autry on instead.
– Autry had to be transported from Riverbend to the local jail and then brought to court.
– The judge apparently forgot to bring the jury in and had to call them back.
– Defense attorney Jennifer Thompson, who was in a hotel room with her case files, had to rush to retrieve everything for cross-examination of a witness she had not prepared for that day. [Undisclosed S9 E6-A] – COURTROOM CONDITIONS: The small southern courtroom was approx 80 degrees that September day.
– Jurors were nodding off. The judge told Thompson she had to finish her examination of Autry that day; she would not be allowed to continue the following morning.
– The judge acknowledged a juror's birthday from the bench.
– Thompson, working in an unfamiliar courthouse away from her office, had no co-counsel and was operating under conditions that disadvantaged effective cross-examination of the state's star witness. [Undisclosed S9 E6-A]

KEY POINTS OF AUTRY'S TRIAL TESTIMONY [TESTIMONY – FABRICATED per RECANT]: – Received a call from Zach Adams the morning of Apr 13, 2011; Zach said he was busy, would call back.
– Second call: Zach said he needed Autry's help; Autry assumed meth batch problem.
– Drove to 30 Yellow Springs Road (Shayne Austin's trailer). Describes: large burn barrel fire; Dylan Adams shirtless at the door; Shayne walking around armed and shouting to get out; Zach at a white 4x4 Nissan Frontier. [Fabricated: gate and fence Autry describes did not exist on Apr 13,2011 (the fence 'went up June 2011 when Shayne got a puppy.') – Bought a 100mg morphine pill from Shayne; shot it.

- Zach told Autry he needed help burying a body. Autry thought it was someone else;
- Zach: "Train, that's Holly Bobo."
- At his July 2011 TBI interview, Autry said he knew Holly through her father. At trial he denies knowing who she was.
- Body described as wrapped in multicolored farm-style quilt in Zach's truck bed, oriented crosswise.
- Autry agreed to help; drove separately to Yellow Springs Church; got in Zach's truck.
- Discovered no shovels or pickaxes in truck.
- Autry proposed taking body to Tennessee River beneath I-40 Bridge, gutting it, sinking it.
- They drove to I-40 Bridge over Tennessee River (US-133 crossing); scouted area, circled boat ramp, acked up to riprap pile.
- Autry grabbed upper torso through the quilt; Zach let down tailgate and grabbed legs, set body on riprap.
- Autry heard movement and sound of distress under a quilt. Told Zach: "this fucking bitch is still alive."
- [RECANT: Autry's lawyer told him "if you're going to go part of the way, you're going to go all the way."
- This is how Autry came to claim he witnessed the actual murder.
- Autry gave Zach the all-clear that nobody nearby; Zach pulled a pistol from truck floorboard (the same gun that began the day holstered on Shayne's hip; no explanation given for how it reached the truck) and fired.
- One shot; echoed under bridge as multiple booms. Birds scattered. Silence.
- Autry heard a boat. They loaded body back in truck and fled.
- 2:30 PM: Autry is back at Zach's residence. Shayne, Dylan, and Zach are outside Dylan's Silverado.
- En route to Dottie's, Shayne tells Zach: "You didn't have to kill her."
- Zach: "You're just as damn guilty. You hid it." Fight; one punch.
- DirecTV records place Shayne at his trailer from noon to 3:00 PM; Zach's alibi places him at Joe's Video with the 3:27 P911 call.]
- Autry introduces Victor Dinsmore into the story at this point.
- Approx April 15: Marathon gas station meeting at US-641 and I-40.
- Zach tells Autry they dumped Holly "near Kelly Ridge."
- Zach solicits Autry to kill Dylan in exchange for future inheritance from grandfather Dick Adams.
- Autry to Zach: "When I get done with that, you'll probably be next."
- Autry goes to barn on his and Shayne's grandmother's property (Yellow Springs Rd) looking for evidence of the rape (hearsay objection raised; judge instructs jury to disregard) but finds nothing.
- Within a week: Autry drives past Kelly Ridge property, sees buzzards in a dead tree, asks property owner for permission to look around.
- Gun chain of custody: starts on Shayne's hip → found in Zach's truck floorboard → used to shoot Holly → returned to Shayne → traded by

Shayne and Autry to Victor Dinsmore for morphine approx one month later. [E3 P1-2; Autry-Analysis]

AUTRY'S ACTUAL WHEREABOUTS – MORNING OF APRIL 13, 2011:
- Angela Scott, Jason Autry's girlfriend, dropped him off at a PT Cruiser on her way to work the morning of Apr 13, 2011.
- This was Autry's real-world placement that morning, separate from the account he gave at trial of receiving calls from Zach and driving to Yellow Springs Rd. [Undisclosed S9 E5]

AUTRY-HOLLY RELATIONSHIP – PRIOR KNOWLEDGE CONTRADICTION:
- At trial, Autry denied knowing Holly Bobo: "I didn't know Holly from Eve."
- Per his July 2011 TBI interview, Autry stated he knew Holly through her father.
- In a later interview with Dr. Spirko in 2023, Autry admitted that he and Holly were second cousins. [Undisclosed S9 E5]

METH-MAKING MOTIVE – PLANTED BY TBI:
- At trial, Autry testified that when Zach called him that morning, Autry "assumed meth batch problem".
- This introduced the theory that the crime began as a meth-making visit.
- In a letter Autry wrote to his mother from jail, Autry said TBI agent Jeff Jackson told him this motive.
- Autry denied at trial that Jackson suggested it. [Undisclosed S9 E5]

LOCATION DISCREPANCY – "NEAR KELLY RIDGE":
- Autry testified that on Apr 15, Zach told him at a Marathon gas station meeting that Holly was dumped "near Kelly Ridge."
- Holly's remains were actually found on Sept 1, 2014, approx 2 miles away from Kelly Ridge. [Undisclosed S9 E5]

SEPTEMBER 2017 – Victor Dinsmore testifies [Dinsmore-Testimony]
- Dinsmore testifies under a full federal immunity agreement.

KEY POINTS OF DINSMORE'S TRIAL TESTIMONY:
- Confirms the Apr 13, 2011 Dottie's encounter: Zach, Shayne, and Autry arrived in a black Chevy truck; asked for a joint; Zach and Shayne got into a fight; Dinsmore heard them talking about "who was going to hit it first".
- He had not put those words together at the time, but after all this came about, he figured out what they were saying.
- Testifies that Zach hid his white Nissan truck at Dinsmore's pole barn after Holly was kidnapped; four rims had to be moved to get it inside; his wife Sandy saw them put it there; Dick Adams came and got it.
- Shayne Austin brought Dinsmore a .32 pistol a couple of months after Holly disappeared, with Autry present; traded for morphine pills;

Dinsmore gave it to Sandy to protect herself because he feared it had a body on it.
- Sandy later throws the gun in the water on Jeannette Holladay Rd after Jamie Darnell tells her it may have a body on it; TBI eventually recovers it.

CROSS-EXAMINATION PROBLEMS:
- Defense lawyer Jennifer Thompson confronts Dinsmore with Jul 21, 2011 statement to Ricky Inman: Dinsmore said the fight at Dottie's happened "a few days after Holly disappeared" and Dinsmore says he had his dates mixed up.
- December 2011: Dinsmore implicated Michael Alexander in burial but later abandoned that thread.
- March 2014 statement to Valerie Trout: Dinsmore mentioned the white Nissan but never said it was hidden at his property.
- Defense attempts to establish that Booth told Dinsmore what Autry was going to say before Dinsmore "remembered" the truck in his pole barn; the prosecution objects and judge sustains, blocking the cross-examination.
- Dinsmore's testimony about when he "remembered" the truck directly contradicts what he said to Booth on May 18, 2017.
- Dana McLendon: "The prosecution knowingly allowed perjured testimony.
- The state successfully obstructed the defense from revealing this prior inconsistent statement and in that way denied Zach Adams a fair trial.
- This, in my opinion, is prosecutorial misconduct, and by itself, without any of the other problems in this case, could warrant a new trial." [T&E E9; Dinsmore-Trial]

SEPTEMBER 2017 – Terry Britt called as prosecution witness
- State calls Terry Britt as a witness to blunt the alternate-suspect defense, with the stated purpose of showing how the initial investigation went off the rails due to Dicus's "tunnel vision."
- Britt is allowed to mock and disparage the law enforcement officers who suspected him.
- The state effectively vouches for his innocence.
- The prosecution front-ended this to prevent the defense from calling Britt and having him appear as a cooperative defense witness. [T&E E4, E5; Undisclosed S9 E3-A]
- Britt agreed to testify pursuant to a cooperation agreement with the state, which resulted in a favorable plea deal on the Tequila Jones charges.
- The deal also extended protection to Janet Britt.
- Terry Britt has since been released from prison. [Undisclosed S9 E3-A]
- Although the defense could have subpoenaed Britt for a palm print exemplar while he was testifying pursuant to a cooperation agreement, the defense did not do so.

- This failure was later raised as a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel. [Undisclosed S9 E3-A]

SEPTEMBER 2017 – Retired law enforcement testify for defense
- TBI lead agent Terry Dicus (retired), FBI Special Agent Art Viveros (retired), and U.S. Marshal John Walker (retired) testify on behalf of the defense.
- All state that the evidence points to Terry Britt, not Zach Adams, and that there is no physical evidence connecting Zach, Dylan, or Shayne to the crimes. [T&E E1, E3 P2]

SEPTEMBER 2017 – SHELL CASING / .380 FORENSIC ERROR – CRITICAL
- A .380 auto shell casing was found right next to Holly Bobo's skull at the recovery site, the location where US Marshal Walker concluded she was killed, consistent with her cell phone data. [Undisclosed S9 E6]
- Forensic pathologist Marco Ross testified that the exit wound defect in Holly's skull measured .36 inches. He stated that any caliber bullet .36 inches or smaller could have caused the wound, and anything larger could not. [Undisclosed S9 E6]
- Prosecutor Jennifer Nichols used this in her rebuttal closing to argue that a .38 shell casing was excluded as the murder weapon because .38 > .36.
- Defense counsel did not object. [Undisclosed S9 E6]
- THE ERROR: Nichols confused the shell casing diameter with the bullet diameter.
- A .380 AUTO shell casing ejects when fired; only the bullet enters the skull.
- The bullet diameter of a .380 auto round is .355 inches, not .38.
- This is a closer match to the .36 inch exit wound defect than the .32 caliber (the state's claimed murder weapon). [Undisclosed S9 E6]
- At a later hearing, Zach's trial attorney acknowledged she did not understand the distinction between bullet diameter and shell casing diameter at the time of trial, and therefore did not object to Nichols's misstatement.
- The .380 shell casing found right next to Holly's skull is now recognized as a viable, and arguably better-fitting, candidate for the murder weapon than the .32 pistol from the Dinsmore pond. [Undisclosed S9 E6]
- Bryant Vitt, neighbor of Shayne Austin's grandmother: Was outside mowing his lawn that morning, was a former police officer, and saw nothing suspicious next door.
- Autry had testified that the rape of Holly occurred at Shayne's grandmother's house while Vitt was mowing.
- Vitt's testimony of seeing nothing contradicts this. [Undisclosed S9 E6]

SEPTEMBER 2017 – Verdict and sentence
- Zach Adams convicted of kidnapping, rape, and murder of Holly Bobo.

Sentenced to life plus 50 years in prison. [T&E E3 P2]

==========
POST-TRIAL 2017–2020
==========

POST-TRIAL 2017–2020
- Dylan Adams pleads guilty; sentenced to 35 years.
- Three years after the 2017 Zach Adams trial, Jason Autry pleads guilty to reduced charges; sentenced to 8 years, served concurrently with his pre-existing federal sentence.
- Net result: Autry serves no additional prison time for what he testified he did to Holly Bobo. [E3 P2]
- Autry's suicide attempts increase after testifying. He is placed in a suicide tank multiple times. "That's the worst I've ever felt in my life coming back, knowing that he was right, but he's a man in prison." [T&E E2]
- After release, Autry receives a gun within a mile of the prison.
- He pockets it out of habit, eventually trades it for a deer rifle, is caught again on felon-in-possession charges, and returns to federal prison on a lengthy new sentence. [T&E E2]

==========
DECEMBER 2023
==========

DECEMBER 2023 — Dr. Spirko and Nicole Weiser interview Jason Autry
- Spirko and Weiser interview Autry at the Shelby County Penal Farm in Memphis, TN.
- Autry signs a form confirming he is meeting without an attorney present. Guard leaves; door locks.
- Autry recants his entire 2017 trial testimony in full.
- Autry states he fabricated the story to get out of prison, with help from attorney Michael Scholl and private investigator Clark Chapman, who fed him discovery documents and shaped the story, with Jennifer Nichols vetting and training him as a witness.
- Fabrication process: The false story was assembled in approx three days using case files his attorney provided: phone records, TBI IRs, and witness statements (the disproportionate discovery from Walker, per Nichols's direction).
- "We put the story together in about 3 days."
- He took his actual Apr 13, 2011 timeline, believing he actually was at the river area with Zach, getting high and retrofitted Holly's story into it.
- "We had to add Holly to that story. You see what I mean? You already had a story. So all you had to do is just add something." [T&E E2; Undisclosed S9 E6]
- "Who was doing the training? Jennifer Nichols. Yeah. She was the boss of the house."

- Autry names Nichols as the central figure who vetted the story, coordinated the coaching, and trained Autry as a witness before trial.
- "Jennifer Nichols said we're going to vet this story and it's got to be untouchable."
- She coached his courtroom testimony directly: "I was told who to speak to and how much to shut down, when to ask for more or less."
- He was trained to give short answers and look at the jury. At one point four people (two attorneys, two prosecutors) were questioning him simultaneously to prepare him.
- Two-part coaching team: Attorney Michael Scholl and private investigator Clark Chapman built the narrative.
- Scholl shuttled between Autry and the prosecution, returning with whether each story version would work.
- The ladder: "What if I say all I saw was just a body?" → "That's not enough to get you out." → "So I got to say I saw him shoot?" → "If you don't play with them, you might as well go all the way, Jason."
- On the attorney's role in planting the seed: Attorney Michael Scholl told Autry, "This is like a child molester case. Everybody's going to scream poor baby. I got you about 95% chance you spend the rest of your time right over there." Autry says that's when the seed was planted. [Undisclosed S9 E6]
- Skull / cause of death sourcing: TBI announced the skull and bullet hole at Double D's bar when remains were found.
- It reached Autry via his mother, confirmed by TBI SA Brent Booth. This is how Autry knew the .38 caliber detail for his testimony.
- Logger report: The basis for placing Shayne, Dylan, and Zach together in the woods was a logger report in the case files; loggers in the area that morning who thought they saw three men together and that one appeared to have been struggling.
- Autry does not know if the logger report was accurate; he borrowed the placement from it.
- Fence / gate error confirmed: Autry testified about a fence and gate at Shayne's trailer that did not exist on Apr 13, 2011. It went up a few months later when Shayne got a puppy. "You did a pretty good job. I mean, but I don't know that."
- Gun testimony error: Autry testified about a gun connected to Shayne: a .357 with a spark (muzzle brake) on the end, long barrel, black; Shayne's father Jimmy had shown Autry this gun.
- Autry told Victor Dinsmore this gun belonged to Shayne; Dinsmore then produced or identified it for police.
- But the gun actually found does not match Shayne's .357; the found gun was a .32 or .38 caliber. These are different guns. Jimmy Austin still has the .357, Autry believes.
- ATM video confirmation: The ATM security guard at the bank where Shayne used the ATM offered TBI video footage corroborating the exact time and date of the transaction.
- Per what the interviewer tells Autry: TBI declined to take the footage.
- Zach's consistent alibi: Autry confirms Zach had five to seven consistent TBI reports, all with the same alibi; getting Xanax bars with Shayne and Dylan, confirmed by bank statements.

- Zach also went to Joe's Video where his girlfriend Rebecca Earp was working, was intoxicated on Xanax, got in an altercation, and someone called 911; but no one responded because law enforcement was searching for Holly Bobo.
- Autry says that 911 call log should be accessible and would corroborate the alibi.
- Autry and Zach at FCI Thomson together: Autry says Zach was never in possession of a guilty demeanor; his consistent story was always the alibi.
- "No, not really [did I get that sense from him]."
- Dana Bobo came to Autry's house early in the investigation to ask questions. Autry answered every question Dana had. Dana was also driving out to Shayne Austin's house and looking around.
- Autry commits to working toward Zach's release: "I want to see his release. I am dedicated to that." He says it doesn't matter to him whether this helps or hurts his own situation.
- On Terry Britt: "Looking at the reports. Once the cadaver dog get on it, seeing all the tools that he had in the back of the van. Yeah, I'm pretty confident."
- Autry does not believe Zach, Dylan, or Shayne are guilty.
- On why he lied: "To get out of prison."
- On how: "I had enough truth in my story to survive scrutiny, and I had all the evidence available that could be used to challenge it."
- Autry: "I dedicated it to him [Zach]. I want to see what's right." [T&E E2]
- NOTE on recantation admissibility hearing: At Zach Adams's post-conviction appeal hearing, Autry pleaded the Fifth.
- Defense sought to admit the recantation as a "statement against interest" under the hearsay exception.
- State argued: (1) Autry was intoxicated during the interview; (2) he was motivated by revenge against the state; (3) the recantation would not subject him to perjury charges.
- Post-conviction court sided with the state.
- Defense's interlocutory appeal of this ruling was denied. [Undisclosed S9 E6]

==========
JANUARY 2025
==========

JANUARY 16, 2025 — Post-conviction relief hearing
- Hearing in Savannah, Tennessee before Judge Bradbury.
- ATM photograph (from 11:12 AM on Apr 13, 2011) is confirmed by the state as existing in their possession.
- The state had denied having it for years. Photo corroborates Zach, Dylan, and Shayne's alibi.
- Jennifer Thompson, a trial observer, provides an account of the 2017 trial.

- Dick Adams's (Zach's grandfather) house was visited as part of the post-conviction investigation.
- Shayne Austin's parents were called. [T&E E6]

JANUARY 18, 2025 — Walker, McLendon, Spirko visit the case scenes
- McLendon and Spirko travel to Parsons to meet Walker at Dottie's at 11:00 AM.
- They visit the Bobo home; encounter Mr. Barnes at the bottom of the driveway (the same neighbor witness Walker had interviewed 14+ years earlier).
- First time they had seen each other in over a decade.
- They drive the route Holly's phone took.
- At the recovery site, they find a circle of glass jars placed on tree branches around the area where Holly's remains were recovered, apparently placed intentionally as spirit catchers or memorial markers.
- Walker had never before visited the exact spot where Holly's remains were found; he searched this area during the investigation but was not present at the 2014 recovery.
- Walker on closure: "No. Unfinished business." [T&E E1]

==========
MARCH 2025
==========

MARCH 2025
- Britt on supervised release in Parsons, TN; CDL permanently revoked.

MARCH 5, 2025 — Episode 1 published
- Trial and Error podcast launches with Dana McLendon and Dr. Katie Spirko.

MARCH 13, 2025 — Episode 2 published
- Autry recant interview aired.

MARCH 21, 2025 — Post-conviction hearing @ Savannah courthouse
- State files motions about the podcast and the Autry recant video.
- Dr. Spirko subpoenaed to testify; Autry appears on Zoom.
- Hearing also addresses state's obligation to turn over the ATM exculpatory evidence.
- McLendon characterizes the state's filings as an effort to silence the podcast. [T&E E2, E3 P1]

MARCH 21, 2025 — Episode 3 Part 1 published
MARCH 22, 2025 — Episode 3 Part 2 published

==========
APRIL–MAY 2025

==========

APRIL 10, 2025 — Episode 4 published (Terry Britt)
APRIL 16, 2025 — Episode 5 published
APRIL 23, 2025 — Episode 6 published (Eye of the Sparrow)

MAY 7, 2025 — Episode 8 published (Dylan Adams confession analysis)

MAY 2025 — Dylan Adams testifies in post-conviction proceedings
- Dylan Adams testifies about the circumstances of his September 2014 interrogation and false confession. He describes the pressure, sleep deprivation, and coaching that produced it. [T&E E10]

==========
JULY 2025
==========

JULY 1, 2025 — Episode 9 published (Victor Dinsmore / suborning perjury)
AUGUST 1, 2025 — Episode 10 published (The Alibi)

==========
AUGUST 2025
==========

AUGUST 8, 2025 — Jason Kilzer dies
- Jason Kilzer (son of Sheila Kilzer, who becomes a source in Ep. 15) dies.
- Per a confidential source reported in Ep. 11: "killed by law enforcement the week before Zach's last hearings while serving a failure to appear warrant."
- Kilzer was unarmed at the time and had been expressing fear of law enforcement related to Zach's case and their desire to keep Dylan from testifying.
- Dr. Spirko was with Kilzer just hours before he was shot.
- Sheila Kilzer investigates and later files a federal civil rights complaint. [T&E E11, E15]

==========
DECEMBER 2025
==========

DECEMBER 4, 2025 — Episode 11 published (Dennis Benjamin)
- Full account of Benjamin's witness network, his role coaching witnesses, and his connections to TBI agents Jackson, Booth, and Vanhuser.

==========
JANUARY 2026

==========

JANUARY 24, 2026 — Full Dylan Adams interrogation transcript published – Full unedited TBI interrogation audio (Sept 17, 2014) released as podcast episode.

==========
FEBRUARY 2026
==========

FEBRUARY 25, 2026 — Episode 12 published
– Cindy Adams (Zach and Dylan's mother) speaks out about Dylan's interrogation, Dennis Benjamin's role, the plea deals, and post-conviction life.

==========
JULY 2026
==========

JULY 11, 2026 — Episode 13 published (Occam's Razor)
– Minute-by-minute reconstruction of Apr 13, 2011, based on cell tower records, Drew Scott's phone data, Clint Bobo's written statement, and neighbor witness accounts.

JULY 31, 2026 — Federal civil rights complaint filed
– Sheila Kilzer files a federal civil rights complaint regarding the circumstances of her son Jason Kilzer's death on Aug 8, 2025. [T&E E15]

==========
AUGUST 2026
==========

AUGUST 8, 2026 — Episode 15 published
– Sheila Kilzer (Jason Kilzer's mother) gives eyewitness account of events surrounding her son's death. [T&E E15]

==========
END OF TIMELINE
==========

CAST OF CHARACTERS

Holly Bobo — victim; 20-year-old nursing student from Darden, TN; abducted Apr 13, 2011; remains found Sept 1, 2014.
Clint Bobo — Holly's older brother; eyewitness to the abduction from the house; described the abductor. His DCS caseworker role (Tara Carrington was his client) is part of Benjamin's witness network.
Karen Bobo — Holly's mother.

Dana Bobo — Holly's father; first witness at the 2017 trial.
Terry Britt — convicted kidnapper and rapist; law enforcement's primary alternate suspect; Booth's January 2012 wiretap affidavit names him as having probable cause for Holly's kidnapping and murder; calls Walker's bluff in spring 2013 by essentially admitting guilt; a photo of Holly was found in his tool shed during the January 2012 search.
Janet Britt — Terry Britt's wife (seventh marriage); former husband Ed Martin convicted of raping foster minors; her alibi for Apr 13, 2011 is contradicted by her co-worker at the Parsons Newsletter.
Zach Adams — convicted 2017 of kidnapping, rape, murder; sentenced to life plus 50 years; the subject of post-conviction proceedings.
Dylan Adams — Zach's younger brother; documented frontal lobe deficits affecting source memory and false memory distinction; source of September 2014 false confession; pled guilty; 35 years. Placed in Benjamin's home as condition of federal probation.
Shayne Austin — fourth co-defendant; passed two polygraphs; no physical evidence against him; died by suicide in Bartow, Florida, February 2015; immunity was revoked before his death.
Jason Autry — co-defendant who became state's star witness at Zach's trial; recanted entire testimony in December 2023 interview with Dr. Spirko.
Victor Dinsmore — convicted rapist turned trial witness; drug dealer (morphine) in Decatur County; confronted by Dennis Benjamin in spring 2014 and coached by TBI SA Brent Booth in May 2017; testified about alleged murder weapon (a gun traded to him by Shayne Austin) and alleged truck hidden in his pole barn; testimony shown to be false and coached. Holly's personal effects found on the road east and west of his property.
Dennis Benjamin — retired Memphis police officer / "the COP" (Chief of Port); inserted himself into the investigation; coached witnesses including Dinsmore and Dylan Adams; in a romantic relationship with Beth Boswell; connected to TBI through Jack Vanhuser, Jeff Jackson, and Valerie Trout; had Dylan living in his Memphis home for ~6 weeks before the September 2014 interrogation.
Brent Booth — TBI Special Agent; signed the January 2012 wiretap affidavit naming Britt as the likely perpetrator; later coached Dinsmore on testimony in May 2017; also interrogated Dylan Adams in September 2014.
Jeff Jackson — TBI agent; led the September 17, 2014 Dylan Adams interrogation; met with Benjamin before the interrogation to get the full "confession" story.
Valerie Trout — TBI agent; handled witnesses whose stories could be shaped through DCS pressure; received Dinsmore's March 5, 2014 statement.
Jack Vanhuser — TBI Regional Special Agent in Charge; Dennis Benjamin's longtime buddy; Benjamin invoked his name in the recorded Dinsmore confrontation.
Jennifer Nichols — lead prosecutor; trained Autry as a witness per his recant; simultaneously prosecuted Britt plea, Autry plea, and others; connected to Benjamin through long Memphis-era overlap.

Beth Boswell — simultaneously Dylan Adams's court-appointed defense attorney, a federal and state prosecutor (handled Britt plea, Autry plea, and others), and in a romantic relationship with Dennis Benjamin. Dylan's sealed federal docket (25 missing documents, sealed entries) was under her handling.
Terry Dicus — TBI lead agent; later retired; testified for the defense at Zach's trial that evidence pointed to Britt, not Adams.
Art Viveros — FBI Special Agent; prosecuted Britt on the Tequila Jones case; testified for the defense at the 2017 trial.
John Walker — retired Senior Inspector, U.S. Marshals; reconstructed Holly's cell phone route; confronted Britt in spring 2013; testified for the defense; continues to investigate.
Dana McLendon — criminal defense attorney; Zach Adams's current post-conviction counsel; co-host of Trial and Error podcast.
Dr. Katie Spirko — neuropsychologist, court-appointed expert witness; conducted the December 2023 Autry recant interview; analyzed Dylan Adams's frontal lobe deficits in depth; co-host of Trial and Error podcast. Under state subpoena as of Ep. 9 (July 2025), prevented from participating.
Michael Scholl — Autry's defense attorney; per Autry's recant, coordinated story development with the prosecution.
Clark Chapman — private investigator hired by Scholl; per Autry's recant, helped develop the fabricated story.
Judge Creed McGinley — approved the January 2012 Britt wiretap; presided over the 2017 Zach Adams trial.
Hansel McAdams — lead prosecutor who signed off on the Booth wiretap affidavit naming Britt.
Mr. Barnes — neighbor of the Bobo family; heard Holly screaming during the abduction on April 13, 2011; encountered again by Walker and McLendon at the Bobo home on January 18, 2025.
Ricky Inman — Decatur County Sheriff's deputy; received Dinsmore's Jul 21, 2011 statement; also present at the ~2003 investigation of Janet Martin's rented West 9th Street residence.
Carl Statler — testified at trial to incriminating statements allegedly made by Zach Adams; dating Amber Dinsmore (Victor's daughter); part of Benjamin's witness network.
Jaime Darnell — testified against Zach at trial; married to Carl Statler's sister Danielle; appears in the Dinsmore coaching sessions in connection with the alleged murder weapon.
Brian Vit — Victor Dinsmore's neighbor; off-duty cop; late-filed state witness; part of Benjamin's witness network.
Tara Carrington — Jason Hugley's ex-girlfriend; DCS client whose caseworker was Clint Bobo; her statements led to Zach's first (later dropped) arrest; part of Benjamin's witness network.
Jason Kilzer — connected to the case; killed by law enforcement on Aug 8, 2025 while serving a failure to appear warrant, the week before Zach's last hearings; was unarmed; had expressed fear of law enforcement related to Zach's case; Dr. Spirko was with him hours before he was shot.

Sheila Kilzer — Jason Kilzer's mother; source for Episode 15; filed federal civil rights complaint Jul 31, 2026.
Cindy Adams — mother of Zach and Dylan Adams; source for Episode 12.
Natalie Bobo — Holly's cousin; encountered Terry Britt at Dollar General (February 2011) and at a house party before Apr 13, 2011.
Michael Alexander — implicated by Dinsmore in December 2011 as part of burial of Holly's body; claim later abandoned.